CARNEGIE GIVES TEN MILLION DOLLARS TO PROVIDE FOR AGED COLLEGE PROFESSORS

TENOR TELLS HIS STORY

Bazelli, Friend of Tetrazzini on the Witness Stand.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Seated with crossed legs between Police Judge Conlan and a gray-haired, gray be-whiskered interpreter, Signor Giorgio Bazelli, he of the swarthy skin and luminous eyes, told what he knew this morning of the financial dealings of Signorina Luisa Tetrazzini and Senor Julio Uriburu.

It was at the preliminary hearing of Uriburu, charged with embezzling 27,000 francs belonging to the famous prima donna while acting as her financial agent. The story goes that Bazelli's jealousy was the cause of Uriburu's arrest; at least, that is the story told by the former diplomat and son of Argentina's ex-president.

CROWD PRESENT.

For that reason, there was a crowd present to listen to the tenor's story. But the crowd was doomed to disappointment. Oh, yes; he was a friend of the song queen—why should he not be? Had he not known her for three years, and was going with her on the Mexican tour? He frankly admitted his friendship, but that is as far as Judge Conlan would allow Attorney Meyers to go. Bazelli said he was also friendly with Uriburu, whom he had known and liked since last September.

GLANCES OF WOMEN.

The little tenor was attired in a light summer suit and the women spectators cast many admiring glances at him as he took the witness chair. He paid little attention to them, however; he was too much interested in giving his testimony. He smiled frequently as he answered the questions, and he must have been in a loquacious mood, judging from the length of his answers. In fact, Bazelli and the interpreter did most of the talking. They held conversations in Italian so long that when an answer of "yes" or "no" would come the spectators could not suppress their smiles.

The direct examination of the little tenor was conducted by Attorney Heyneman, who represents the fair Luisa in the prosecution.

KNOWS BOTH.

"Do you know the defendant?" asked Heyneman, after Bazelli had given his name.

"I do," was the reply.

"And do you know Madame Tetrazzini?"

"I do."

"Did you, the defendant Tetrazzini ever have a conversation relative to a money transaction involving 2,500 francs?"

"We had," replied Bazelli, after Attorney Meyer's objection to the question had been overruled.

"Tell us about it."

"A claim came from Milan, Italy, that 2,000 francs that Tortozzini had given to Uriburu to send to that country had not been received. We three met at Madame's apartments in the Marie Antoinette. Madame asked Uriburu for an explanation, and he said:

"'That's all right, I am responsible for the 2,000 francs you have given me, and also for the 17,000 francs you gave me in Mexico.'"

"Did he say that he had sent the money?" asked Heynemann.

"He did," was the reply.

"To whom did he say he gave it?"

"He said he had sent it by the Swiss-American Bank. We had been talking about the matter for a month. Two days after the first conversation Tetrazzini and I went to the bank and they said the receipt was not genuine. Then Uriburu said he had entrusted the money to a friend named Mugeos."

On cross-examination, Meyers asked:

SPOKE GERMAN.

"Was the conversation you speak of in Spanish or Italian?"

"When Uriburu was with me we al-

POLICE HAVE NO CLEW.

Blonde Actress and Stocks Cause of Tax Collector Smith's Downfall.

LILLIAN LESLIE, THE ACTRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, APRIL 27.—HAVE YOU SEEN THIS MAN? ARREST EDWARD J. SMITH, TAX COLLECTOR OF THIS CITY, CHARGE, EMBEZZLING PUBLIC FUNDS. HOLD ALL MONEY FOUND IN HIS POSSESSION. AGE, FORTY-FIVE; HEIGHT 5 FEET, 10; WEIGHT, 175; DARK EYES; BROWN HAIR; SMOOTH FACE; CAN RAISE DARK BEARD AND MUSTACHE; HAS BUNIONS AND WALKS ON BALL OF FEET. WORE GRAY TWEED SUIT, BLACK DERBY HAT, NEAT DRESSER; OCCUPATION, DRUGGIST.

J. F. DINAN, Chief of Police.

E. J. SMITH, THE ABSCONDER.

NO CLEW YET.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—No clew to the whereabouts of Edward J. Smith, the fugitive tax collector of this city, has been obtained by the police, though Captain of Detectives Burnett thinks he may have gone to Honduras to escape arrest and extradition. The full amount of his defalcation will not be known until the experts now examining the books of his office have completed their work, but the loss to the city, should it not exceed $190,000, will be made good by the surety company which furnished his official bond.

The manager of this company says that Smith's previous shortage of $165,000, which was made good by his brother, was never brought to its notice.

The methods used by the Tax Collector to conceal his operations are declared to have been many, involving considerable labor on the part of the accountants who are endeavoring to trace them. After their report has been presented to the Board of Supervisors that body will take action on the suspension of Smith by Mayor Schmitz. Approval of this suspension is equivalent to a removal from office. The Mayor then will have the appointment of a successor to the defaulting official.

The Grand Jury now in session has taken notice of the matter, and probably will make a thorough examination.

WHERE DID MONEY GO?

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—How did Edward J. Smith, Tax Collector for the City and County of San Francisco, squander the vast sum of money which he took from the pocket of the people?

This is the question that is being asked in the home, in the club, the office, and on the curb of San Francisco today.

And the answers come back that the defaulting official poured thousands into the lap of beautiful blonde Lillian Leslie, the actress, admired by many men and favored, too.

GAVE HER PRESENTS.

That Tax Collector Smith showered his gold and lavished his affection on this tall, handsome, light-haired girl, there can be no doubt.

Costly presents were given her, and she was enabled to entertain in rich style, but the two were seldom seen together in public places.

In a handsomely appointed flat at 1450 Jones street, Miss Leslie lived until recently, with her uncle and aunt a Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis, and there Smith was a frequent visitor.

GIRL IS AWAY.

It is said that several weeks ago Miss Leslie decided to take a trip around the world, and she is now said to be on the high seas bound for the Orient.

Meanwhile the whereabouts of the deposed Tax Collector are unknown and while people are speculating, officials are investigating the affairs of his office.

BIG AMOUNT TAKEN.

TUNNEL UNDER THE BAY

Plans For Big Scheme Discussed in M. C. Chapman's Office.

There is a project on foot in this city and San Francisco to build a tunnel under the bay of San Francisco for the accommodation of traffic between the metropolis of Alameda county and the older metropolis of California on the other side of the bay.

CAPITALISTS INTERESTED.

The project has been brought to the attention of capitalists and professional men both in this city and San Francisco, and not a few of them have lent a willing ear to the representations of the projectors.

Although the subject has been discussed behind closed doors for some time, it received only passing attention until a few days ago, when the authoritative announcement was made that the Western Pacific Railroad would become an established fact and that it would not only establish a station in Oakland, but would also secure a terminal in San Francisco.

This gratifying news from the East led a number of the gentlemen who had been approached on the subject of a roadway under the bay into San Francisco to believe that the Western Pacific Railroad Company was behind the project and impelled them to give more consideration to the proposed plan of subway than they otherwise would have given.

FIRST MEETING.

The result of the canvass made, which, however, was only of an informal character, resulted in the holding of a meeting last night in the office of Attorney M. C. Chapman of several well-known attorneys, who were addressed on the subject by W. H. H. Graves, the gentleman who has been the leading exponent of the project on this side of the bay.

SECRET MEETING.

The meeting was not intended for the public, nor even for those who would be most likely to financier such a scheme. Legal views on the subject were those sought, and for two hours and a half the matter was under discussion, in a desultory manner.

Those who attended the meeting held in M. C. Chapman's office were: W. H. H. Graves, mining man, 1427 Seventh avenue, an old resident of this city; Attorneys M. C. Chapman, Wm. R. Davis, Sam'l Bell McKee and J. B. Richardson.

One of the gentlemen who was at last night's metings was asked by the reported who W. H. H. Graves, the promoter of the projete was. He did not feel that the pledge of secrecy prevented him from answering that question and replied:

"Mr. Graves is an old resident of this city. For a number of years, he was connected with one of the banks of Oakland. He is well known and enterprising."

Mr. Graves admits that he is behind the tunnel scheme but says he is not ready to talk.

DEADLY FEUD

More Murders Expected By the Southern Authorities.

BAKERSFIELD, April 27.—The coroner's inquest over the killing of Dave Burton and George Bagsby by Newt Walker was completed last night. The verdict was: "The deceased came to their death from gunshot wounds at the hands of Newt Walker."

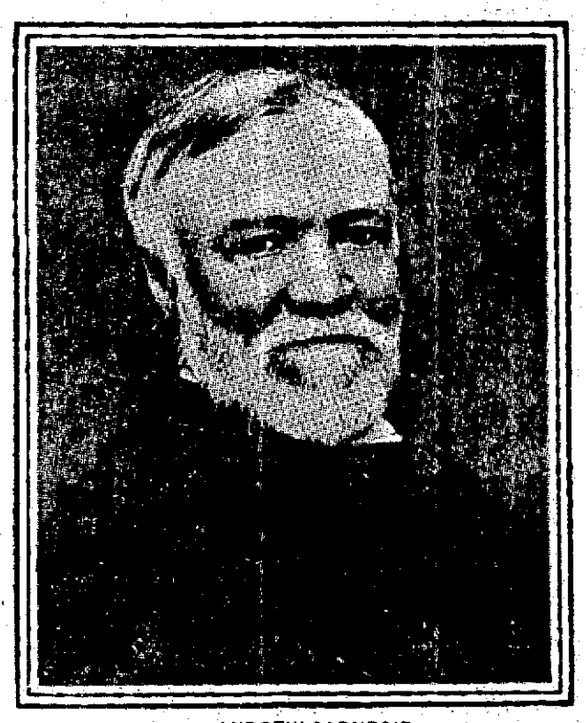
S. H. Gibson, brother of the "Gibson boys" who were convicted of killing Fletcher Burton and afterwards pardoned and the father of the Walker boys were the only witnesses.

The body of Dave Burton will be taken to Los Angeles for interment and George Bagsby will be buried here this afternoon.

When Jim Walker, who recently was acquitted of a murder charge, reached Havilah on Tuesday he made no secret of the pride he felt in Newt's achievement. He declared his intention of going after F. H. Gibson, and when this was made known to Gibson he was just as anxious to get at Walker.

It is believed by the local authorities that the deadly feud will be continued.

HOW MONEY IS TO BE PAID.



ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Berkeley and Stanford Professors Will Be on the List—Terms of the Big Trust.

NEW YORK, April 27.—A gift of $10,000,000 by Andrew Carnegie to provide annuities for college professors who are not able to continue in active service, was announced today by Frank A. Vanderlip, vice-president of the National City Bank of New York. Professors in the United States, Canada and New Foundland will share in the distribution of the income of the fund. United States Steel Corporation five per cent first mortgage bonds for $10,000,000 have been transferred to a board of trustees and steps will be taken at once to organize a corporation to receive the donation. Dr. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Mr. Vanderlip have been selected by Mr. Carnegie to obtain data on the subject to be presented at the first meeting of the board of trustees, which will take place on November 15.

LETTER TO THE PRESS.

Mr. Vanderlip today sent the following letter to the press:

"Mr. Andrew Carnegie has transferred to a board of trustees consisting in the main of presidents of the most important colleges in the United States and Canada, $10,000,000 first mortgage five per cent Steel Corporation bonds. The purpose of the trust fund thus completed is to provide annuities for college professors in the United States, Canada and New Foundland, who, from old age or other physical disability, are no longer in a position to render the most efficient service. It is Mr. Carnegie's belief that this fund will not only provide a dignified pension system for a body of most worthy self-sacrificing and poorly paid men, but that it will be of distinct value to the cause of education in offering an opportunity to the trustees of a college to retire members of the faculty who have faithfully served the institution for many years and to replace such men with young, intelligent and efficient professors. I am taking the liberty of enclosing herewith Mr. Carnegie's letter outlining the nature of his bequest. This letter was written to the members of the board of trustees. The list of trustees is also enclosed. All have accepted.

TO RECEIVE BEQUEST.

"Steps will at once be taken to organize a corporation to formally receive the bequest. The first meeting of the board of trustees has been called for November 15. In the meantime it is Mr. Carnegie's desire that Dr. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and myself proceed to obtain data from all the institutions concerned for use at the meeting of the trustees. The bonds which Mr. Carnegie has so generously donated have a market value of $11,000,000 and will produce an annual income of $500,000.

"The corporation which is being formed will be styled 'The Carnegie Foundation.'

"Yours very truly,

"F. A. VANDERLIP."

CARNEGIE'S LETTER.

Mr. Carnegie's letter to the trustees is dated April 18, and is as follows:

"I have reached the conclusion that the least reward of all the professions is that of the teacher in our higher educational institutions. New York City generously and very wisely provides retiring pensions for teachers in her public schools, and also for her policemen. Very few, indeed, of our colleges are able to do so. The consequences are grievous. Able men hesitate to adopt teaching as a career, and many old professors whose places should be occupied by younger men cannot be retired.

THE PENSIONS.

"I have therefore, transferred to you and your successors as trustees, $10,000,000 five per cent first mortgage bonds of the United States Steel Corporation, the revenue from which is to provide retiring pensions for the teachers of universities, colleges and technical schools in our own country, Canada and New Foundland, under such condition as you may adopt from time to time. Expert calculations show that the revenue will be ample for the purpose.

THREE CLASSES.

"The fund applies to three classes of institutions named without regard to race, sex, creed or color. We have, however, to recognize that State and colonial governments which have established or mainly support universities, colleges or schools, may prefer that their relations shall remain exclusively with the State. I cannot, therefore, presume to include them.

"There is another class which states do not aid, their constitutions in some cases even forbidding it, viz.: Sectarian institutions. Many of those established long ago were truly sectarian, but today are free to all men of all creeds or of none; such are to be considered sectarian. Only such as are under control of a sect or require trustees (or a majority thereof) officers, faculty or students, to belong to any specified sect, or which impose any theological test, are to be excluded.

THE TRUSTEES.

"Trustees shall hold office five years and be eligible for re-election. The first trustees shall draw lots for one, two, three, four, or five year terms, so that one-fifth shall retire each year.

LIFE OF WOMAN AT STAKE

Mrs. Lena Koehn on Trial For Shooting Her Husband.

The trial of Lena Koehn for the murder of her husband, Edward Koehn, on February 12 last, was begun before Judge Greene this morning.

She is a young woman apparently about 30 years of age, and came into court this morning with a new white creation in the way of a hat, white waist and dress of a brown.

She is being defended by Attorneys A. L. Frick and City Attorney J. E. McElroy, while District Attorney John Allen is prosecuting the case for the people.

From questions propounded to the jurors by Attorneys Frick and McElroy, their defense will be that their client only shot to defend herself from great bodily harm.

"Have you any scruples about shooting a person when you fear great harm may be done you?"

"Do you believe that one has the right to defend himself even to killing a person when afraid he may be killed himself?"

These and other questions of like import were asked the jurors as each came for his questioning at the hands of the attorneys for the defense.

The question of hanging a woman if it was shown she were guilty of a crime calling for such punishment is being put to every juror by District Attorney Allen, and unless each can say that he would vote for the extreme penalty under the law if he finds that her crime was not justified, they will be excused from sitting on the case.

The court room was well filled at the calling of the case this morning with jurors, witnesses and those who attend from interest in the case. The woman, while charged with the killing of her husband, betrayed no emotion or nervousness during the reading of the formal charge to those assembled in the court room.

The crime for which she is now on trial was committed about 7 o'clock on the night of February 12, while she and her husband, Edward Koehn, were alone in the house. They had only been married a few months, but had had several quarrels, and on the night in question she emptied the contents of a revolver into her husband at short range.

There were no eyewitnesses to the affair except herself, and he was unable to talk when witnesses arrived.

After shooting him she went out and notified a neighbor of what she had done, and said that she did it in self defense, and that if she had not shot her husband she would have been killed herself.

HAYS' CASE IS READY FOR JURY

The court stated that he desired to give further consideration to some details of the case before delivering his final instructions to the jury. The case will be submitted to the jury some time this afternoon.

SEARCHING FOR MURDERER

TORTURICI, ITALIAN FUGITIVE, MAY BE NEAR BAKERSFIELD.

BAKERSFIELD, April 27. — Under Sheriff Baker and Deputy Sheriff Quinn returned to this city from the old Olds ranch on Poso creek after an all-night search for a man supposed to be Pedro Torturici, who is wanted in San Francisco for the murder of the Italian, Velardo, April 5.

Late last night Sam Sanborn of this city aroused Mr. Baker at his home and told him that he had seen a man lying in some tall weeds during the afternoon whom he believed to be the fugitive murderer.

He asked to see the picture of the murderer and it was shown to him.

"That's the man!" he said excitedly.

The officers found a nest of straw where the man had been sleeping, but a most thorough search did not reveal the suspect.

There are many Italians along the creek and it is not considered improbable by the officers that Torturici is in hiding in the vicinity.

FIGHT A DUEL

Armed With Knife and Whip Men Do Battle.

Prosecuting Attorney Leach this afternoon issued a complaint charging with assault with a deadly weapon Joe Manuel, a laborer, residing at 722 Center street, who is alleged to have attacked S. Walter Hayter.

The trouble occurred on Twenty-third street, between Twenty-fourth and Orange avenues, where Hayter and his brother were plastering a house. Manuel was in the employ of the Hayter brothers, and a dispute over wages ended, according to Hayter, in Manuel drawing a knife and rushing at his employer, who to defend himself picked up a whip and struck at Manuel.

The two men grappled with each other, and after a short struggle Manuel succeeded in wrenching the whip from Hayter's hand. He then struck his employer over the head, forcing the latter to beat a hasty retreat.

Manuel followed, knife in hand, but was unable to overtake Hayter, who afterward called on Prosecuting Attorney Leach and asked that the warrant be sworn out.

IN BEHALF OF BUNKERS

ARGUMENTS FOR THE DEFENSE BEGUN THIS MORNING.

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—H. L. Partridge of San Jose opened the argument for the defense today in the trial of Harry Bunkers, the deposed State Senator who was indicted for bribery, for accepting money from San Francisco building and loan associations. Partridge said that William Corbin of the Continental Association, and Clarence Grange of the Phoenix were conspirators, and that Joseph Jordan, who testified to having passed the money, was a mere tool. He declared that rich and powerful corporations were making a fight against a poor and innocent man in order to hide their own infamy.

The attorney said that if Grange was an honest man, then hell was full of just such honest men. Partridge said he believed that certain building and loan associations had put up money for the purpose of bribery, that it had been given to Joseph Jordan and that he had kept it for himself.

TWELVE BODIES SENT HOME

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—The bodies of twelve Filipinos who died during the exposition, were shipped to Manila today for interment in their native land. Five bodies are buried here and it has not yet been decided whether these shall be exhumed and sent to Manila.

EMERY AGAIN ARRESTED.

A. R. Emery was arrested yesterday on the complaint of his daughter, Miss Anna Emery, upon a charge of disturbing the peace. Emery is accused of annoying his wife, who is separated from him, and his family, who reside at 1260 East Tenth street. A few days ago Emery had Charles White arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. White resides in a flat in the same building as the Emery family and states that he interfered when Emery attempted to kidnap his six-year-old boy. Both the wife and the daughter profess to be living in terror of Emery, and had him arrested today to keep the peace. Emery has been confined twice in the asylum at Stockton.

STRIKE SPREADS

Chicago Teamsters Have Pickets Watching For Non-Union Men.

CHICAGO, April 27.—The teamsters' strike, which hitherto has affected less than 100 men and has been confined to a boycott of Mongomery Ward & Company, spread today to the wholesale and retail houses of Marshall Field & Company and Carson, Pirie, Scott & Company and to the wholesale house of J. V. Farwell & Company.

Strike pickets, with orders to prevent, if possible, the handling of any goods by non-union men, were placed about the stables, stores and warehouses of the firms named.

As a result of the spreading of the strike heavy trucks and city delivery wagons were kept behind locked doors in Field's La Salle street barn and at the Carson, Pirie, Scott & Company's barns, the reason assigned being to prevent pickets learning what preparations were being made.

Drivers for the railway express companies refused today to haul or deliver goods to the firms against which the teamsters had struck.

One hundred and ninety drivers of the A. M. Forbes Cartage Company struck.

CHORUS GIRL IS BADLY HURT

Yesterday afternoon Miss Madge Carreg, a chorus girl with the Kolb and Dill company, who are at present at the Macdonough Theater, in company with Miss Reynolds, who is a member of the same company, started for a visit to her parents, who reside on Ellis street in San Francisco.

When alighting from a Market street car at Ellis street they failed to notice a car coming in the opposite direction. The car struck Miss Carreg, throwing her to one side of the track, while Miss Reynolds was slightly injured, not receiving the full blow of the car.

Miss Carreg was unconscious when picked up, and was carried to her home, where a physician was summoned.

Word was sent to Stage Director Frank B. Blair of the Kolb and Dill company that Miss Carreg was upon what would probably prove to be her death bed, and as there was no time to engage any one to take her place the marches were arranged a little differently, and the girls who marched and drilled, with smiling faces, were carrying a heavy load of sorrow in their hearts, for Miss Carreg was a most popular member of the chorus.

At a late hour today no hopes were entertained for her recovery, and the members of her family are all with her, hoping against hope that her life will be spared.

PRESIDENT'S PARTY KILLS BIG BEAR

NEWCASTLE, Colo., April 27.—Club Foot, a grizzly that has been a terror to small farmers and ranchmen for a number of years, was killed last night by Fred Tollens, a member of the President's party. It had been hoped by members of the party that Mr. Roosevelt would get a chance at this bear, but the animal was overtaken by the dogs and was playing havoc with them when Tollens came up. To save the hounds, he was compelled to kill the grizzly. The party started out early today, going up the West Divide Creek. Secretary Loeb started back and will arrive at Glenwood Springs during the afternoon.

OPIUM SMOKERS ARE RAIDED

BERKELEY, April 27.—Marshal Vollmer last night made a rapid raid on two Chinese laundries near Dwight Way and Shattuck avenue where he discovered opium smoking was in progress. He found in both places a gang of Chinese smoking the dope. He captured eighteen of them after breaking through the doors with an ax. He also took a complete opium smoking lay-out from each laundry.

GIVES CONCERT AND DANCE.

The band of the First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, last evening gave a benefit concert and dance for Company F, L. C. C., at the West Oakland Auditorium. The band, which consisted of fifty pieces, was directed by Lieutenant Ernest G. Williams. Remarks were made by Colonel James E. Power, commander of the First Regiment, L. C. C., and the audience, which filled the hall, was appreciative and liberal with its applause. The entertainment closed with a dance.

The following program was rendered: March, "Father of Victory"; overture, "Poet and Peasant"; grand selection, "Il Trovatore"; characteristic, "The Arabian Scout"; tenor solo, Robert E. Saxe; selection, "Floradora"; intermezzo, "Korn Kobbs"; march, "Sons of the Brave."

WOMAN EVANGELIST.

Curry, one of the most talented and distinguished lady evangelists in the country, will conduct a ten days' meeting at the Church of the Nazarene, on Center street, Berkeley, beginning Sunday morning, April 30. Miss Curry has met with marvelous success in her Christian work. She is an eloquent preacher and her Bible expositions are strikingly original. She comes here from Southern California, where she has just closed a very successful meeting.

LOSES THREE FINGERS.

While running the planer in the carriage factory of his father-in-law, J. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate three of his fingers.

SECRETARY OF LUMBER HANDLERS DEFAULTS.

Warrant Out For Charles Lamb Charged With Stealing Four Hundred Dollars.

T. B. Crandall, president of Lumber Handlers' and Tallymen's Union No. 225, this afternoon swore out a warrant for the arrest of Charles Lamb, secretary and treasurer of the organization, on the charge of having embezzled $400 of the union's funds.

According to Crandall, Lamb came to him on March 18 and asked the president to sign two checks in blank, as he wished to pay two small bills.

The checks were signed and handed over to Lamb, who is alleged to have made out one of the checks for $400, cashed it at the bank and to have appropriated the money to his own use. When Lamb was taxed by the board of trustees of the union with having misappropriated the funds he is alleged to have acknowledged his embezzlement, offering as an excuse that he was in a hole and needed the money. The warrant has been placed in the hands of the detectives and it is probable that it will be served before nightfall.

ways spoke German, but when Tetrazzini or any one else was present we spoke in Spanish," replied the tenor.

"Do you speak Spanish?"

"Not very well, but it is similar to Italian and I understand it."

"Was the conversation you speak of held at the Marie Antoinette?"

"That time we were on the street."

"Didn't you say it was in the hotel?"

"We had many conversations; we talked about the matter for at least a month."

"Did you understand every word of the conversation spoken in Spanish?"

HE IS FRIENDLY.

"I did."

Then Meyers touched upon matters of more interest to the spectators:

"You are very friendly with Tetrazzini, are you not?" he asked.

Heyneman said the question was incompetent and irrelevant, but Judge Conlan allowed it.

"Yes, I have known her for three years," replied Bazelli.

"And are you friendly with Uriburu?"

"Yes, I have known him since last September and formed a good opinion of him."

Further questioning along those lines was cut cut short by Judge Conlan, who held that the friendship Bazelli has for the prima donna has nothing to do with the guilt or innocence of Uriburu.

That ended Bazelli's testimony for the first charge of felony embezzlement and the second charge was taken up.

Bazelli said Uriburu had started to take him and Tetrazzini to the Swiss-American Bank to prove that the receipt was genuine, but had, instead, taken them to the Anglo-Californian Bank. At the bank Tetrazzini and her financial agent went into a director's room and the witness remained outside. As he did not hear what the director said, he was not allowed to testify further on that point. The questions asked on the first charge were then repeated and Bazelli gave the same answers.

"You are friendly with Madame Tetrazzini?" asked Meyers.

"I am," replied Bazelli.

GOING TO MEXICO.

"You are going to Mexico with the same opera company?"

"I am."

"Are you friendly with Uriburu?"

"I am."

"Are you friendly with Rossi, another member of the company?"

Before Bazelli could answer, Heyneman's objection was sustained.

The only other witness this morning was Sarafina Grato, a dark-eyed, raven-haired daughter of Italy, who lives with the prima donna and acts as her seamstress. Sarafina is a handsome woman and is good to look at, but she knew little about the case. She knew that Uriburu gave Tetrazzini a check for 17,000 francs and a receipt for 2,000 francs which he said he had sent to the dressmakers at Milan. But she couldn't identify the receipt. She knew so little, in fact, that Heyneman asked her only a few questions and Meyers declined to cross-examine her.

At noon the case went over till tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Attorney Heyneman stated that the prosecution would probably rest tomorrow, and Uriburu, therefore, will soon learn his fate. Prison life is telling on Uriburu, and he was pale and listless this morning, seeming to take little interest in Bazelli's story.

"The trustees are hereby given full powers to manage the trust in every respect, to fill vacancies of non-ex-officio members; appoint executive committees, employ agents, change securities and generally speaking, to do all things necessary in their judgment to insure the most beneficial administration of the funds.

HOW THEY VOTE.

FAIL TO LOCATE WOMAN

MADAM RUFF THUS FAR HAS SUCCEEDED IN ELUDING THE POLICE.

The police have not yet obtained any clews which indicate the present whereabouts of Madam Ruff, spiritualistic fakir, who it is alleged to have left a long string of dupes behind her.

The latest information concerning her movements was supplied yesterday by THE TRIBUNE.

It is thought that a trunk full of valuables has been forwarded to some Eastern point where Madame Ruff and her husband will meet it.

Those who were victimized are very coy about telling the police of their losses, but the opinion still prevails that the sorceress got away with a sum far in excess of $5,000.

WAS WOMAN KIDNAPPED?

PUEBLO, Colo., April 27.—Mrs. Blanche Shaw, the principal witness against former city Detective E. H. Wilson, who is on trial for alleged fraudulent registration has mysteriously disappeared and District Attorney White has stated that he believes the woman has been kidnaped by persons who do not want the election cases prosecuted. As a result of the disappearance of the chief witness, the case against Wilson has been vacated and will not be reset until the woman can be found. N. S. Walpole, the newly appointed postmaster in Pueblo, is a defendant in several indictments in which Wilson also figures. It is known that the woman was offered $500, and a ticket to Mexico to leave the city Tuesday. According to her statement to the District Attorney she refused the offer, but she disappeared that night while the police were watching her. Every effort is being made to apprehend the woman.

PRESENTS FROM THE EMPEROR

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Hamburg-American steamer Hamburg, which arrived here last night, came direct from Italy after landing Emperor William and his party at Naples.

Every officer and man on the ship has some memento of the cruise which was personally presented to him by the Emperor. The keepsakes include jewels, watches, and trinkets, the whole value of which is estimated at $3,000.

The officers of the steamer say that the Emperor apparently enjoyed every moment of his trip. When the ship Tangier and a heavy sea prevented the royal party from landing, a large quantity of correspondence for the Emperor was brought on board. In it were several telegrams which referred to comment at the French capital on his trip.

VALISE MYSTERY

Has D. R. M'Ginley Salesman, Met With Foul Play?

The police have the mystery of a valise to solve

Yesterday evening Towerman Bowman, employed by the Southern Pacific Company near the Oakland mole telephoned police headquarters that three men were rifling a valise and that it looked like robbery Policeman Agnew and Murray were dispatched to the scene, but when they arrived there were no men in sight A valise with its contents strewn along the railroad track was picked up by the officers and taken to the city prison

As far as can be learned from the contents of the valise it belonged to D R McGinley, a traveling salesman of the Wiley B. Allen Company

Among the things which were found was a bank book of the London and American Bank of San Francisco with an entry of $2 000 in the name of Amy Isted

The amount was deposited in 1902 and as far as the book is concerned there is nothing to indicate that the money was ever drawn out

There was also a certificate of the Apex Goldfield Mining Company calling for 1 000 shares made out in the name of Mrs E J Gideon There were also two blank certificates calling for 500 and 200 shares respectively The bank book and the stock were found by Manuel Reposa and Joe Silva, two boys in a box car this morning They thought the stock certificates represented money and were much disappointed by not getting a reward.

The managers of the Wiley B Allen Company both in this city and in San Francisco have been notified of the finding of the valise They stated they would inform McGinley as soon as he put in an appearance on the scene His whereabouts is not known at the present time and he may have been the victim of a foul robbery

will amount to over $250,000

Already defalcations to the amount of more than $100,000 have been discovered and the end is not yet.

WIFE PROSTRATED.

A sad feature of the case is the fact that the ex-official's wife until yesterday knew nothing of her husband's shortage. When she learned he was a thief, she was prostrated and with her little daughter, is confined to her residence on Fair Oaks street

TREATMENT OF BROTHER.

And yet another feature to the case is Smith's treatment of his brother, last Wednesday, the day before he disappeared, with whom he went to luncheon for the purpose of turning over to his brother $900, which had been realized from the sale of property that had stood in the name of the Tax Collector's wife.

Smith's brother inquired if he owed any money around town The answer of the Tax Collector was that $500 would pay his indebtedness.

Then the brother urged that he take the money from the $900, and this was done.

Yet, at that very moment, Smith had in his possession over $30,000 that he had just stolen from the people.

CHARMING ACTRESS.

Miss Leslie, for whom Smith is said to have stolen from his office, is a charming blonde, who several years ago played an engagement at the Orpheum, and created something of a sensation by wearing a costume which is said to have cost $10,000, and, so whisper those on the curb, paid for by Smith.

EASTERN STOCKS.

Yet another rumor is to the effect that Smith, who is known to have made frequent trips to Los Angeles, used a portion of the stolen gold to plunge on Eastern stocks through brokerage firms.

He also had a mine near Grass Valley, so he said, and attempted to sell stock in the proposition, but among many it was looked upon as a myth.

According to his friends, Smith seldom visited the racetrack, although one of his brothers, Al Smith, is a bookmaker.

SMITH'S CAREER.

Smith had had an unsavory career. Scandal had followed him as a clerk in the Legislature; as a drug clerk at San Quentin; as a member of the notorious "Shifty Eight" in the Board of Supervisors. Yet he was a handy man for the corporations and the bosses, and they nominated him for Tax Collector on the Republican ticket in 1901, and he was elected. In 1903 he secured a re-election.

In April of last year he went to his brother, James B. Smith, and told him he must have $65,000 at once or be disgraced. The brother was shocked, but went to work and raised the money, supposing that the $65,000 would save the Tax Collector and protect the family name.

But in a few days the Tax Collector came back and declared that to make good all defalcations he must have $100,000 more. This was a poser for James B. Smith. He had made money in the coal dealing firm of J. C Wilson Co., which had the contracts for supplying coal to the United States transports, and he realized handsomely when his firm was merged, with the firms of John R. Howard and John Rosenfeld & Sons, into the Western Fuel Company. But with all that he was not a man who could go out and raise $165,000.

SACRIFICE OF A BROTHER.

Still he made every sacrifice to raise the money and save the family name. He went to the Rosenfeld Brothers and to John C. Wilson, his old partner, and stated his case. They helped him at once, and he secured the $100,000 through them, turning over all his securities and almost bankrupting himself Since then he has been in the habit of getting up at 4 o'clock in the morning to go to the wharves and weigh coal, saving weighers' charges that he might have the money to pay against the great sum he had advanced for his rascal brother.

Edward J Smith turned over to James B. Smith his two drug stores When the latter took hold of them he found there were $7000 of bills overdue, and he had to make them good, in addition to his other tremendous sacrifices

So much for one brother's devotion. Now for the other brother's contemptible ingratitude.

HIS DRUG BUSINESS.

At the time that Smith first became involved financially he owned the drug store at the corner of Taylor and Eddy strees The business was a lucrative one His income therefrom yielded him a net profit of $500 or more a month.

His salary as Tax Collector yielded him another $333 monthly.

The drug store was turned over to James a year ago. Ed wanted to make good as he could to his brother.

"Smith has one of the most economical wives in the world," said a friend of his yesterday.

"I don't think that his home expenses amounted to more than $100 a month. His wife saved every penny she could, not that she stinted herself or the family at all, but simply was of an economical turn of mind They have a beautiful little girl six years of age and Smith was very proud of her.

"I am not surprised to hear of this thing. Do you know, that for the last two weeks Smith has been very peculiar. His conversation would ramble at times and really I would think he was crazy I called on him about three or four times a week on an average, just out of friendship.

"Frequently when I got up to go he would say: 'Wait a minute, I want to talk with you; I have something very important to say to you; I'll go out with you.'

"Well, I waited and we walked out together; sometimes I would leave him at the bank Whenever I asked him what the important matters were he had to tell me he would say: 'Oh, it doesn't amount to much, and then he would speak of the weather or some other such foolish thing.

"I never knew Smith to spend much money dissipating. He smoked cigarettes a great deal, but never drank a drop of liquor. He had a heart as big as an ox. I have known him to be an attentive audience when a story would be told among friends of some poor unfortunate whom he had never heard of that needed money with which to pay rent or was in distrett on account of sickness.

"He would inquire into the details, and without delaying further would go to the distressed individual and supply the necessary funds. He would never talk about those things only to say 'You can never tell when this thing is likely to hit any of us.'

"I have often chided him about those affairs and told him that I thought charity commenced at home. He said that if anything ever happened to him that his wife would be taken care of out of his insurance, which amounted to more than $35,000.

"I often asked him why he didn't remain home nights. His drug store was being well taken care of by competent clerks and he had nothing to worry about. It seems that he always made excuses to his wife in the evening by telling her he had to go out to look out after his drug store affairs."

WHERE IS HE?

And this is the story of the defalcation of Tax Collector Smith

Where he is now cannot be ascertained

The Leslie woman is enroute to or has arrived in the Orient and possibly Smith has sailed to join her.

There was a steamer that left on Thursday, the day he disappeared, for Japan

Or it might be that he went to Los Angeles, and continued on to Mexico.

The detectives will, it is believed, have hard work to trace him for he has had about a week's start.

And as a climax to the story, there comes a rumor of a duplicate set of books in the Tax Collector's office, and that the defaulter may not be the only one who will face a criminal charge when the investigation is completed.

THE SHORTAGE.

It is estimated by the experts engaged in examining the books of the Tax Collector's office that Smith's defalcation will amount to at least $58,000. They discovered today one item of $10,000 which had not been entered and also detected several smaller shortages

GONE WITH A WOMAN.

The police believe that most of the money taken from the city was spent by absconder Smith for the benefit of women friends, one of whom is alleged to have accompanied him in his flight. It is the intention of those examining into the case to make a full examination of the books of the county treasurer, and probably of others who have the handling of public funds.

MISS COURTWRIGHT NOT IN COURT

The trial of Miss Alice B Courtwright did not go on this morning, owing to the fact that Dr Clarence Selfridge came into court at the time set for the beginning of the case and stated that Miss Courtwright was ill and not physically able to attend The case was then postponed by Judge Melvin until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when he stated that he would expect to proceed with the trial

For the last two days Miss Courtwright has been given the use of the Judge's chambers so that she could listen to the proceedings without being seen To some in the courtroom she gave as her reason that she wanted to be out of sight that she was afraid she would be tempted to tear her brother-in-law's hair out if he went on the stand and contradicted her testimony given at the first hearing

The side of the case for the family is now all in and the defense is putting in its side Besides the testimony of Dr Selfridge there are a number of depositions of people at Los Angeles who have estated that while she was a sick woman they did not believe that she is insane.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES TONIGHT.

The Council committees will meet tonight The bicycle ordinance will come up for further discussion There is also a protest against the liquor license application filed by Lamar C Howlan, who wishes to conduct a saloon at the corner of Sixty-seventh street and San Pablo avenue

CAN STOCKTON HOLD ELECTION?

STOCKTON, April 27.—There is some doubt as to whether Stockton can hold a valid municipal election this year It appears that both the Democratic and Republican committees were five days late in filing their calls for primary elections. Last evening the Civic League, formed ostensibly in the interests of good government filed by petition a complete ticket, made up partly of candidates on the other tickets and partly of other candidates.

The law says that such petition must be filed at least 20 days before election As election day is May 16 some hold that the petition is a day late. There is considerable legal controversy, and the ballot may be printed blank, leaving the voter to write his choice of officials.

GET ANOTHER BODIRE LETTER

C C. Harvey of Fairfield, Maine, writes Chief of Police Hodgkins to the effect that the places, names and dates named by Earl Roy Bodine in his confession of murdering a tramp are correct. The latter did not give any additional light on the question of murder however and the Chief of Police is just as much in the dark as ever relative to the actual facts

There does not seem to be any likelihood that Bodine will ever be taken back to Maine for trial. His own confession is the only thing thus far on which the tale hinges and this confession is deemed spurious.

MANY BUILDING

Permits Issued Represent a Total Value of $54,000.

Since Monday last there have been twenty-four building permits applied for, which have a total value of $54,000. The fees on this sum amount to $145.50.

At this rate Oakland is forging ahead in the matter of buildings and improvements at a $3,000,000 a year clip.

Competent realty experts confidently believe that the increase in real estate values will correspond to the increase in improvements. If that be true the assessed valuation of Oakland will not fall very far short of the $60,000,000 mark.

The largest undertaking for the week is that of Timothy Donahue at Ninth and Franklin streets. He contemplates erecting stores and warehouses to the value of $29,000. The following list gives an accurate description of the applications for five days:

Mrs. L. King, Twenty-fourth and Grove, two-story dwelling, $3,400, fee $4; Dr. C. L. Jones, Thirteenth and Clay, alterations $1,985, fee $3; J. Davidson, East Madison street, windmill $175, fee 50 cents; Mrs. Manuel King, 627 East Twelfth street, alterations $100, fee 50 cents; H. B. Tullett, Vallejo street, one-story dwelling $1,860, fee $3; M. BOTH ARE INSANE

Man and Wife Say "Spell" Has Been Put on Them.

Joseph Sousa, and Mary Sousa, a husband and wife, both insane, with three small children were taken to the Receiving Hospital this morning and will be examined tomorrow afternoon before Judge W. H. Waste and probably be committed to an asylum. Both are so far affected that each of them see and hear strange sounds and believe that some sort of a "spell" has been cast over them by enemies.

Sousa is a rancher and has been conducting a dairy on San Pablo creek in Contra Costa county. Both husband and wife got to acting so queerly that finally they were induced to go to the sanitarium of Dr. M. M. Enos at Eighteenth and Grove streets, who charged them $100 a week for themselves and their three children, the eldest of whom is but twelve years of age.

Edward R. Rowland, a neighbor of the Sousa family, seeing that at such a rate all of their property would be dissipated, swore out a warrant before the district attorney charging them with insanity and this morning they were taken to the Receiving Hospital, where they are now confined. Rowland will also petition the courts for letters of guardianship on their persons and estate and has given this part of the matter into the hands of attorney William G. Burke, of San Francisco.

The value of the property, or their interest is not known, but it is estimated at about $15,000. Sousa has a lease on a piece of dairy property for which he pays $60 a month. He lives not far from Redondo Park, back of Berkeley and has a lucrative business which pays well. Of late, however, he has become melancholy and is afflicted with suicidal mania and has threatened to kill himself on several occasions.

The doctors are baffled at the peculiar phase of the case of the husband and wife, who have so acted and reacted upon each other as to have shared in the general breaking down of their mentality. One sees and hears strange things and the other will see them too. In speaking of his malady this morning Sousa said:

"I don't know what has made me sick, but I think some enemies must have done something. People can do bad things with medicines. My wife is sick, too. I have been trying to sell my place and go away from where my farm is, but I have not been able to do it. It is terrible for any one to do such a thing and make me sick."

The three children, Mary, Emma and Joseph have been left temporarily at the sanitarium until the disposition of their parents and the guardianship proceedings have been concluded. Sousa is apparently a man of about forty-five years of age.

DALTON'S CLAIM

Brings An Action Against County For $8,000. Back Salary.

Suit was begun this morning by Assessor Henry P. Dalton against the county for $8,000 back pay. Owing to the fact that the county has certain judgments against him which more than cancel this amount the Board of Supervisors has directed Auditor G. W. Bacon not to draw Dalton's salary warrant and he has drawn no pay since January, 1903, and at the rate of $4,000 a year on January 1 of this year there was $8,000 due him.

At the time of the filing of the papers in the action he, with Attorney Carl Abbott, also filed a claim against the Board of Supervisors for $13,036.95, which he alleges is due him as a commission for the collection of poll taxes during several years past.

LOOKS LIKE A MURDER

Woman Mysteriously Burned to Death at Eureka.

EUREKA, April 27.—Mrs. Patrick Quinn, aged 50, was mysteriously burned to death in her home in this city this morning. The fire broke out at 5 a. m., and when it was quenched the body of the woman was found beneath a door which had burned at the hinges and fallen on her prostrate form. Absolutely nothing is known as to the origin of the fire. The dead woman was in her night clothes and evidently had attempted to escape when she fell, where her horribly charred remains were found. The case has a suspicious look to the police who are rigidly investigating. The husband of the dead woman separated from her some time ago and went to San Francisco, where he is engaged in business.

MAY MAKE HIM HEIR.

LONDON, April 27.—A dispatch from Antwerp to the Daily Telegraph states that King Leopold, the Count of Flanders (brother of the King) and the Belgium finance Ministers are debating the advisability of making the Count of Flanders' son, Prince Albert, the legal heir-presumptive to the throne of Belgium by obtaining Parliamentary sanction for the Count of Flanders' renunciation, already agreed upon, of his claims to the succession. It is feared however, that the Socialists in the Chamber of Deputies will violently oppose the measure especially as it is also proposed to transfer the Count of Flanders' allowance of $40,000 yearly to Prince Albert who is poor. The Socialists and Progressives want to suppress this allowance on the ground that as both King Leopold and the Count of Flanders are millionaires they ought to provide for the heir presumptive out of their private funds.

LARGE LAND PURCHASE

IMPORTANT DEAL IS RECORDED IN THE NORTHERN PART OF STATE.

RED BLUFF, Cal., April 27.—The largest land purchase which has ever occurred in this county, and one which is of vast importance, not only to this immediate section, but to the whole of Northern California has been finally closed and now stands a certainty, in the purchase of the famous Hundred Thousand Acre tract, lying east of Red Bluff, once the property of Joseph Cone. The purchase has been made by a syndicate of San Francisco and Spokane capitalists who will make extensive improvements on the property and throw it open to sale in ten acre tracts. The property, which extends for fifteen miles along Sacramento River, comprises the finest river land in the State and has been used for years as a grain and stock ranch and being thrown on the market in small tracts will open the field for vast immigration to this county. County Surveyor W. F. Luning, and a large corps of assistants have established a camp near the center of the property and are now at work subdividing it, and running a 100 foot boulevard from Red Bluff to Sesma. Mr. Smithcrowder of Spokane, who will manage the enterprise, is here and says that developments will be pushed to rapid completion and that extensive plans for colonization and the bringing in of Eastern settlers have been perfected.

NOT HEREDITARY.

Baldness Due to a Living Minute Germ.

Many people, even unto the present day of grace, consider baldness due to hereditary influence.

Nothing is further from the truth—Baldness is caused by the onslaught of a minute organism which secretes itself beneath the scalp and attacks the roots of the hair—causing it to lose its life and fall out.

This organism cannot be got rid of except by the free and persevering use of Newbro's Herpicide.

No matter how badly the scalp is effected the Dandruff surely disappears and hair health is restored when Herpicide is applied.

WILL FORM AN IMPROVEMENT CLUB

The following circular has been issued:

"Oakland, Cal., April 24, 1905. Dear Sirs:—A number of the residents of this district have for some time discussed the advisability of organizing an Improvement Club. Such an organization has been recently effected; and on Thursday evening, April 27, a meeting will be held at 4906 Telegraph avenue to receive the charter members of this organization, known as "The Central Oakland Club." It is a well known fact that the so-called annexed district has been almost entirely neglected so far as municipal improvements are concerned.

"You, as a resident, are no doubt interested in all matters municipal and otherwise affecting the welfare of this district, so you are especially requested to be present on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock to become a charter member of the club. Yours for improvement,

"The Central Oakland Club,
"W. B. THOMAS, President,
"DR. CHARLES, A. DUKES,
"Recording Secretary."

FETE COMMITTEE WILL MEET

FOR ROBERTS' CREDITORS.

Judgment for $608.50 has been given by Judge Ellsworth against Florence A. Branin, as administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Charles A. Branin, in favor of Frank A. Leach, as receiver in the bankruptcy proceedings of Captain William Roberts. Branin during his lifetime loaned Roberts about $1,600, and when Roberts was about to go through insolvency he assigned over to Branin some claims, upon which Branin was enabled to realize a considerable sum of money.

When Roberts failed the other creditors found out about the claims assigned to Branin and made the assertion that these claims were properly assets of the estate and that they should all be allowed to share in them. Suit was brought against his estate, with the result that the widow must turn over to the creditors the above mentioned sum.

WAGON-LOAD OF ACCUSED CHINESE

The work of raiding Chinese lottery joints is being kept up by the Berkeley authorities and fourteen were taken into custody about midnight last night and taken to the County Jail, where they were booked for gambling. The Chinese maintain their innocence and state that they were not gambling.

It was 1:55 o'clock when Deputy Marshal Moran of Berkeley drove up to the door of the County Jail this morning with an express wagon load of Chinese. There was much jabbering and expostulation on their part but they were finally all searched and put into cells.

TENOR BAZELLI WILL BE CALLED AS WITNESS.

He Will Be Asked to Tell What He Knows About Tetrazzini's Financial Loss.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—"Your honor, two of the most important witnesses for the prosecution are about to leave the city, and I object to a continuance," declared Attorney Charles Heynemann this morning, when the charge of felony embezzlement again Julio Uriburu, former financial agent of Luisa Tetrazzini, was called in Police Judge Conlan's court. And the special prosecutor added to the newspaper men:

"I can't disclose the names of these witnesses, because I fear they may be approached by agents of the defense."

Attorney Jake Meyers, who, with ex-Judge Treadwell, represents Uriburu, insisted upon a continuance until Friday, and Judge Conlan compromised matters by continuing the case until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The statement of Heynemann that he feared an effort would be made to "fix" the State's witnesses, caused something of a sensation among the crowd of curious men and women who had assembled.

FIXING WITNESSES.

"If any fixing is done it will be on the part of the prosecution," said Attorney Meyers, hotly. "We have a clear case, but it takes time to collect the evidence to prove our client's innocence. We have already cabled to Milan and Mexcio for information."

Judge Conlan split the difference by continuing the case for a day.

"SOULFUL EYES."

Those who attended court in the hope of again seeing the tuneful Tetrazzini and hearing her bird-like voice were disappointed. She had accused Uriburu of embezzling 27,000 francs, and had told the court how she had entrusted the money to her "friend" with instructions to send it to her dressmakers in Milan. She had been excused by Judge Conlan, and now she is waiting for telegraphic orders to proceed to Mexico. There was no occasion for her re-appearance in court, and without Tetrazzini the "performance" fell flat.

Uriburu, with his "soulful eyes" and his freshly waxed mustache, was there, but the star was absent and the audience was disappointed. They lingered, however, in the hope of catching a glimpse of the song queen, until Judge Conlan announced his decision.

"The case will go over till tomorrow at 11 o'clock," said his honor, "with the understanding that another continuance will be granted when the testimony of the two witnesses mentioned by Mr. Heynemann shall have been taken."

There is considerable speculation about these two witnesses, as Heynemann admits that they belong to the opera company with which the fair Luisa is going to Mexico. She cannot go till they have testified, and it is expected that she will be in court tomorrow to hear what they have to say.

THE TENOR.

It is rumored that one of these witnesses will be the tenor, Signor Bazelli, and the rumor lends interest to the proceedings. It is Bazelli whom Uriburu accuses of being responsible for the prosecution.

Asked to what he expected Bazelli to testify, Uriburu, former diplomat and son of Argentina's expresident, replied:

"Quien sabe."

And when asked why the prima donna denied that she had ever been very friendly to him and insisted upon his prosecution, he again replied:

"Quien sabe."

That was all the former financial agent of the actress would say. The sweet-voiced Luisa says she never did care for Uriburu, other than as a mere friend, and that she is prosecuting him because he took her money, a thing that he denies. She greets all suggestions that she cares for Bazelli with a ripple of laughter.

"What will be Uriburu's defense?" asked an acquaintance of Bailiff Mike Walsh, as he led the dark-eyed prisoner from the court room to the jail. And the venerable policeman replied:

"Quien sabe."

HOW THE BIG DEFALCATION WAS DISCOVERED.

Southern Pacific Tax Money Was Stolen by the San Francisco Tax Collector ===He Has Six Days' Start of the Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The defalcation of Tax Collector Smith in the sum of $39,000 is the talk of the town.

Smith was well known all over the city, and had a host of friends.

When the announcement was made that he was a defaulter it created a great sensation in political and civic circles.

POLICE NOTIFIED.

The police department was at once notified and detectives are now trying to locate the absconding official.

Mayor Schmitz is particularly active in the matter, and will make every effort to have the defaulter brought to justice.

THE DISCOVERY.

The defalcation was discovered when it was found that the Southern Pacific Company was in arrears with its taxes on the books of the public office. That condition was beyond precedent.

The railroad people were asked why this year the assessment was delayed.

"But it is not," came back the answer. On April 4 and 18 we paid $39,112.68 personally to Tax Collector Smith. We made two installments, giving checks for the amount and receiving the receipts."

BROTHER TELLS.

Straightway he went to the office of the Mayor and told the tale.

Mayor Schmitz wasted no time, but immediately communicated with the Sheriff and Chief of Police.

Smith has six days' start with the money.

SMITH SUSPENDED.

The Mayor has formally suspended Smith from the office and appointed James McKay, bookkeeper in the office, in temporary charge.

OWNED A DRUG STORE.

Before being elected to the office of Tax Collector, Edward J. Smith, was a well known citizen.

He was associated with prominent fraternal organizations and had many friends.

He is owner of a drug store and resided with his family at 339 Fair Oak street.

FORMER DEFALCATION.

His brother, James B. Smith, who made good the first alleged misappropriation of the city funds, is a very successful business man and the member of several influential and select clubs.

HE IS REMOVED.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The removal of Tax Collector E. J. Smith and the subsequent development that he was short $39,000 in his accounts is the talk of the town today.

Smith was removed this morning by Mayor Schmitz, who promptly appointed the chief deputy, James McKay, to the office.

The cause of the removal was soon learned and the fall of the popular official is now the sole topic of conversation in political, social and club circles.

Smith has not been seen since last Thursday, when, he announced that he was going to take a trip to Los Angeles. When he did not return at the first of the week, as he had promised, an investigation was made and the result was the discovery of the shortage.

John R. Smith, a brother of the defaulting Tax Collector, is the cashier of the office. He is authority for the statement that the second installment of taxes of the Southern Pacific Company amounting to $39,112.68, was paid by E. Black Ryan April 4th.

GAVE RECEIPT.

The money has not been accounted for, although it was known to every deputy in the office that it had been paid.

It is also alleged that Tax Collector Smith several weeks ago collected $8,000 from the Sharon estate as taxes for the Palace Hotel.

No returns were made for this amount.

Another story that is being circulated and has not been denied is that McKay learned of that shortage and forced him to refund the money by threatening to expose him.

BROTHER'S HELP.

A year ago, it is alleged, Smith was short many thousands, and his brother, James D. Smith of the Western Fuel Company, made good the amount. James D. Smith at that time placed another brother, John R. Smith in the office as cashier, to prevent further peculations.

WIFE AND FAMILY.

Just what led to the downfall of the once popular public officer is not known. It is said that he did not play the races and was not given to gambling in any form.

Smith is 40 years old and a wife and daughter residing here are mourning with others his sudden departure.

James McKay, whom Mayor Schmitz appointed to fill the vacancy made by Smith's removal, has been a deputy in the office ever since the election of Smith. It was through him that the shortage of his superior is said to have been exposed.

HEAVY SHORTAGE.

According to Mayor Schmitz, a shortage of $165,000 in the accounts of Tax Collector Smith was discovered in April, 1904.

This, the Mayor says, was made good by the Tax Collector's brother, James B. Smith, who first pledged about $500,000 worth of securities and then made good the shortage in money.

MILITIA LAW AND NEW UNIFORMS

STATE MAKES ALLOWANCE TO OFFICERS BELOW RANK OF MAJOR.

The new law which was passed at the last session of the Legislature and which revolutionizes the National Guard organization of this State has just been officially received by the officers of Companies A and F, N. G. C., in this city, and is occupying considerable of their time in their attempt to master it.

One of the features which appeals strongly to the younger commissioned officers is the fact that an allowance of $25 is made by the State to all officers below the rank of major to aid them in providing themselves with uniforms.

Officers from the rank of major upward must, therefore, supply their own uniforms.

FROM ALL NATIONS

PARIS, Ap. 27.—The world's conference of the Young Men's Christian Alliance, which is celebrating the centennial aniversary of the establishment of the alliance's organization, was opened today in the Charity Bazaar building.

More than a thousand delegates, representing twenty nations, were present. The Japanese delegates hold credentials from the Japanese Government and were given special recognition by the association.

The American delegation includes forty-five persons, representing various cities in the United States and Canada. Dean Hale of Christiana, Norway, called the conference to order. The following officers were elected:

President, Count Jacques de Portalles; vice presidents, Prince Bernadotte, second son of King Oscar of Sweden and Norway; Count Bernstorff of Germany, Lord Kinniard of England and Mr. James Stokes of the United States.

The opening address was made by Prince Bernadotte, president of the Scandinavian associations.

A striking feature was the audience rising unanimously and reaffirming the basis adopted fifty years ago for the extension of the Christian work of the organization.

BONDS WORTH $6,000 FOUND IN TRUNK

In looking through the effects of the late Patrick D. Hogan, whose estate was supposed to amount to a few hundred dollars, Attorney John De Lancey found wrapped up in a piece of paper in one corner of his trunk $6000 worth of United States four per cent bonds. His estate outside of this is valued at $1500 and it was thought that this was all that he had.

LABORERS STRIKE.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 26.—Private dispatches of an alarming nature have been received from cities and towns along the Volga saying that all the dock laborers have struck. The ordinary accumulation of winter freight has been augmented by railroad blockades and the failure now to move this freight with the opening of the river to navigation creates a most serious situation. The strike was organized by Black Sea agitators.

BEAR STORY IS PROVEN

PRESIDENT'S PARTY KILLED TWO ONE DAY AND THREE THE NEXT.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 27.—Secretary Loeb left here today to pay his second visit to President Roosevelt at his camp in the bear country of the Rockies. He goes to Newcastle and from there will ride to the camp, a distance of about sixteen or eighteen miles.

The secrtary takes with him a number of documents for the President's signature, daily papers, plans for the return trip and congratulations that have been telegraphed here concerning the success of the hunt. Mr. Loeb expects to come back tomorrow.

Hunters say the luck of the party is unprecedented considering the season, weather and the character of the country where the President is located.

When the story reached here that three bears had been killed yesterday and two the day before, no credence was given it.

Not until Courier Chapman arrived would they give credence to the story and even then they were better satisfied when they saw the pelts that Chapman left to be mounted by a local taxidirmist.

It has now been settled definitely that the President will go to Redstone.

The camp may be moved a few miles further south as the present grounds are hunted out, but the party will not stray far from the west divide creek.

The Goldfield Exploration Syndicate sent out a well equipped expedition this morning and will send another out Monday. You can buy the Company's stock from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., Thursday and Friday at 10 cents per share, and after that for twenty-five cents per share. As only 20,000 shares will be sold at either price you must act promptly if you get any. That within sixty days this stock will readily sell for $1.00 per share is our candid belief. Our reasons for believing this can not be made public as it would be a bad business move to do so.

MUTINY ON CRUISER

GALVESTON, April 27.—A state of friction almost bordering on mutiny is said to exist on the new United States cruiser Galveston. The vessel arrived here last Wednesday on her maiden trip to receive a silver service from the citizens of Galveston. The cruiser has been visited by thousands of people from all sections of the State. Yesterday Commander Cutler ordered his ship away from the wharves where she has been since her arrival, to anchorage in the roads, so that the officers might be better able to control the men, numbers of whom were leaving the ship and overstaying their shore leave. Federal and municipal officers have today returned nearly two score of men found ashore, many of whom were drunk.

These men vigorously protested against the treatment which they allege is accorded them on board ship by Commander Cutler. Men of long service who came from the vessel on shore duty and local people who were on board today state that a condition verging on mutiny is existing there.

The men among them several petty officers of long service pronounce the voyage of the Galveston the most unbearable they have ever experienced. Many of the men denounced the commander and state that they are over-worked and under fed. They claim that for the most trivial offenses they are given the extreme penalty and that sixty of the men are in irons.

The marines are said to be almost worn out preserving order on board. The cruiser sailed for Norfolk to-day.

CHECK AND MAN MISSING

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—A man known as Roy Williams has been missing from the American Hotel on Howard street since April 17, when it is alleged he went to a bank for the purpose of cashing a check for $15,000. A woman who was with him at the hotel has not been seen since April 21.

GARFIELD IS HERE

Comes to Investigate Rebates on Shipments of Oil.

SAN FRANCISCO, Ap. 27.—Jas. R. Garfield, chief of the bureau of corporations of the Department of Commerce and Labor, arrived here today to continue his investigation regarding railroad rebates, principally in connection with oil shipments.

He says that he proposes to fully examine every phase of the question as it is presented in this State, and that when his work is completed he will report to President Roosevelt through the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. He will begin his inquiry without delay, and complete it as soon as possible.

PLAN MAY DAY FESTIVAL

MEMBERS OF CHRIST CHURCH, ALAMEDA, WILL ENTERTAIN.

The Guilds and Sunday School of Christ church, Episcopal, of Alameda, are to give a three day's May Festival, beginning next Monday, May 1st. Being a holiday, there is to be a May-day outing fete in the old Thompson place on High street near Central avenue. It is to be an all-day affair in a beautiful old place.

Parents are invited to come and bring the children for a picnic. The attractions are to be May-pole dance, crowning of the May-Queen, merry-go-round, pony-cart rides, fish pond, fortune-telling, and other booths.

Luncheon and refreshment booths will be in evidence containing tamales, sandwiches, coffee and tea, ice cream, cake, candy, lemonade and root beer. Miss Remmel, Miss Gray and Mrs. Robinson are in charge of the outing-fete. In case of rain to be held the following Saturday.

Monday evening at 8 p. m., in the Parish hall, Grand street and Santa Clara avenue there is to be a musicale under the direction of Mr. F. Currier Smith, assisted by Miss Sherwood and Miss Mitchell.

Tuesday, May 2d, from 2 to 6 p. m., there is to be a bazaar and art exhibit in the Parish hall. The bazaar is in charge of the Parish Aid Chapter, of which Mrs. Jordan is President. The Parish Workers' Association will serve tea to all present. Mrs. Sale is president, and the special committee in charge, Mrs. Hargrave and Mrs. Fores. At 4 o'clock there will be a matinee—"Garden Secret," by P. B. Marston, rendered by a special company of children. Those in charge are Rev. Mr. Guthrie, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harker. Tuesday evening the "Deltas" from Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, will present the amusing burlesque, "The Peak Sisters," in the Parish Hall at 8 p. m.

Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 6 p. m. in the Parish Hall the bazaar and art exhibit will be repeated and at 4 o'clock a special company of high school girls will present "The Minister's Wife." Miss Sherwood and Miss Bradley are in charge.

Wednesday at 8 p. m. in Harmony Hall, Paru street, the Sunday school children will present "Mother Goose Cantata," under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Slosson and Mrs. Osborne of Berkeley.

BURLESQUE AT THE MACDONOUGH

The season of burlesque is on at the Macdonough Theater with the famous German comedians, Kolb and Dill at the helm, suported by their own company of over forty pretty girls and artists. They opened to a large house last night in Judson C. Brusie's successful burlesque "I O U," and kept the large audience in roars of laughter for fully three hours. Kolb and Dill, with their mixed Dutch dialect are a host and seem to be as popular here as they were in San Francisco for so many yeras. Edith Mason has not only an excellent voice but has also an excellent appearance and carries the piece with a dash and vim that reminds one of the only Lillian Russell. Ben T. Dillion as the Irish member is different from others in his conception of the usual stage Irishman. Will H. Cross portrayed a tough character to perfection and created no end of amusement with his ideas of unionism. Thos. H. Persse, with his sweet tenor voice added a charm to the performance and acted his part with intelligence. An Oakland girl, Miss Pearl Hickmann, with her partner Florence Bain, are the end dancers and certainly add vim to the performance. The other members of the company are forty or more pretty and shapely chorus girls who can sing and act. "I O U" will remain the bill for tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday matinee and another successful burlesque "The Beauty Shop" will be the offering for the balance of the engagement, Saturday night and Sunday matinee and night.

RED FEATHER.

The much discussed comic opera, "Red Feather," comes to the Macdonough Theater next Monday and Tuesdany nights. It is reported to be the most magnificent comic opera production ever presented here. Grace Van Studdiford, who is remembered for her brilliant work as the prima donna of the Metropolitan English Grand Opera Company, and also of the Bostonians, is the star of the production. Reginald De Koven wrote the music of "Red Feather" and the composer of "Robin Hood" has scored equal success in his latest work. The book is by Charles Klein and the lyrics are by Charles Emerson Cook. Seats are now on sale and from indications the houses at both performances will be large.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers, too. Only 25c at Osgoods', Druggists, 12th and Washington and 7th and Broadway.

It Is Now Public Property!

A recent development in the medicine business is here made public. Dr. Pierce announces that the women taking his "Favorite Prescription" are going to know just what is contained in it. His "Favorite Prescription" for weak women is not a patent medicine. It is an efficient remedy scientifically extracted from the roots of medicinal plants which cure the diseases and weaknesses of women. At first Dr. Pierce used it entirely in his private practice, in which he made a specialty of the diseases peculiar to women. It was so uniformly successful, that afterwards he decided to put it up in a form easily obtained at every drug store. Hereafter every bottle of "Favorite Prescription" going out from the World's Dispensary laboratory, at Buffalo, N. Y., will have the ingredients in plain English on every bottle.

NOT A PARTICLE OF ALCOHOL

or harmful drugs is contained in this famous prescription. All women who are afflicted with diseases and weaknesses peculiar to their sex, can with perfect safety take this medicine, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred they will be entirely cured of their afflictions. For more than one-third of a century Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has enjoyed a high reputation for the chronic ailments incident to womanhood.

THE PROOF:

From long experience Dr. Pierce acquired the knowledge of how to combine the following ingredients in just the right proportion in his "Favorite Prescription" for diseases of woman.

CHEMISTS TESTING PLANTS.

This medicine contains the non-alcoholic extracts of the following native plants:

℞

Lady's Slipper (Cypripedium Pubescens).
Black Cohosh (Cimicifuga Racemosa).
Unicorn root (Chamælirium Luteum).
Blue Cohosh (Caulophyllum Thalictroides).
Golden Seal (Hydrastis Canadensis.)

THE REASON:

To meet the many outrageous and wholly baseless attacks of some scoffers, Dr. Pierce has decided to make public the ingredients of this medicine, which is the best tonic for debilitated and nervous women.

BOWLING TEAMS TO MEET

MEMBERS OF LOCAL BUTCHERS' UNION TO ROLL AGAINST SAN FRANCISCO.

Preparations are being made by the members of the bowling club of the Oakland Butchers Union, Local No. 120, for a bowling tournament with the San Francisco Union No. 115.

Last night the aspirants for the team to represent Oakland, held a preliminary try-out at the Syndicate Alleys.

There were present George Janssen, H. C. Schaffer, Chris Hofsas, Jack Erhard, and Henry Behrman.

The scores they made are to be kept secret so that no information may be given their prospective opponents.

It is expected that there will be six members of the club in the team. Regular practice has been taken by the bowlers and they are reasonably sure of success. Carl Scheithe and C. E. Schmidt, two of the best in the club, are at present on their wedding tours, but will probably return in time for the match.

AGITATION COMMITTEE.

Six members of the Butchers' Union have been chosen to go about evenings visiting the meetings of the other locals making speeches in favor of patronizing the Co-operative markets. They are J. W. Kidwell, George Brunner, J. F. Erhard, George Janssen, H. Behrman and Curtis Richardson.

THELMA SCORES AT THE LIBERTY

Such plays as "Thelma," this week's attraction at Ye Liberty Playhouse, tend toward making the drama more popular with the majority of theater goers. The theme is good, the morals strong and the atmosphere a delightful combination of modern English society and duplicity and trustful Norwegian simplicity. "Thelma" has been remarkably popular wherever it has been presented and is more than duplicating its success here. The company has been wisely selected from among the best of Bishop's Thirty Players, and each score distinct hits. George Stuart's Christie as Sigurd, the foundling, whose love for Thelma so preys upon his feeble mind as to render him insane, gives a wonderful study of the role. Adele Block in the title role is sweet and winsome throughout and particularly effective in the heavier scenes. Scenically the production is a triumph in the way of artistic stage settings, nothing more beautiful ever having been seen on a local stage than the mountain glen shown in the third act. There will be the usual matinees on Saturday and Sunday. Next week Barney Bernard in the "Financier," a new play by H. D. Cottrell.

CASE IS NEAR END

Nan Patterson May Not Put in Any Defense.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Unless the prosecution has some striking bit of evidence discovered since the last trial and which has been zealously concealed thus far, Nan Patterson's fate probably will be entrusted to the jury on the case as presented by her accusers. After yesterday's session, when Pawnbroker Hyman Stern failed to identify either J. Morgan Smith, Mrs. Smith or Miss Patterson as persons who were present in his store when the revolver which killed Caesar Young was purchased, Abraham Levy, Miss Patterson's counsel, said he was convinced that the State's case had fallen flat.

NEEDS NO DEFENSE.

"Nan Patterson needs no defense," said Mr. Levy, after a conference with his associate counsel. "The defendant will go to the jury on the case as made out by the State when Assistant District Attorney Rand closes the testimony."

Mr. Levy added that Miss Patterson was not in favor of this program—that she wanted to go on the stand again, tell the jurors her own story and herself try to convince them of her innocence. She will not be permitted to influence the conduct of the case this time, as in the previous trial, however.

OTHER WITNESSES.

If the prosecutor follows the course of the previous trial, as has been done up to this point, all important witnesses remaining to be examined are Mrs. Young, the widow of the dead bookmaker, and John Millen, his racing partner. It is probable, however, that the letters seized when the Smiths were arrested in Cincinnati, which did not appear at the last trial, will be put in evidence. What these letters contain is not known to the public, but it is said that among them are several letters written by Nan Patterson to her sister after the flight of the Smiths. These letters are expected to throw some light on the reason the Smiths' hurried departure from this city and their alleged determined efforts to evade agents of the district attorney who were searching for them.

A NEW WITNESS.

An interesting overnight development was the statement given out by Mrs. Fannie Shapro, in which she claims to have been within a yard of the cab when the shot was fired and signified her willingness to go on the stand and swear that Young had the weapon which caused his death.

Millen, Young's racing partner, went on the stand during the forenoon session and told of the journeys made by Young and Miss Patterson to the race tracks on the Pacific Coast. Millen's testimony was in the main a repetition of that which he gave at the previous trial.

OFF FOR THE GOLDFIELDS.

A Well Equipped Party of Prospectors Left Yesterday for Twelve Months' Exploration Work in the Rich Fields of Nevada.

The Goldfield Exploration Syndicate sent out their first expedition yesterday, and will follow this with a second on Monday. They will keep the business red hot from this time and beyond a question within the year will get some big properties. You can buy their stock up to 8 p. m. of April 28th at ten cents per share, after which time it will be held at twenty-five cents per share for not to exceed thirty days. As they already have some big things in view it is safe to say the stock will have a ready sale at $1.00 per share within sixty days.

Remember your opportunity for a safe, conservative investment that is as certain to bring you large returns as you are of getting your interest on a Government bond, will remain open until 8 p. m. of April 28th. TAX COLLECTOR WORKING HARD

Tax Collector James Barber is busily engaged in settling up the tax payments of the past year. Monday taxes became delinquent but as yet the amount of these cannot be told. He is in hopes of being able to make a report by next Monday. At the present time his force of men are going through a lot of preliminary work and in regard to the amount of taxes that will be due, he said:

"It would be mere guess work with me at present to compare this year's delinquencies with other years. The season generally has been a good one and the payments have been heavy and I fancy that the delinquencies will be proportionately light, but this is only a guess."

SALOONKEEPER'S CASE.

The testimony in the case of Joseph Fappiano, a saloonkeeper at the corner of Twenty-second and Market streets, accused of selling liquor to W. Singen, a minor, is all in and the case was taken under advisement by Police Judge Samuels. Singen says he is over eighteen years of age, whereas the prosecution state he is under seventeen years of age. The records of the Board of Health are produced showing that young Singen was born March 28, 1886. Singen's brother testified that he would not be eighteen until next year, stating that he was born in 1887. The parish records show that the young fellow was born in 1887, in contradiction of the records of the Board of Health. Judge Samuels will attempt to decide which of the two records is correct. He will render his decision on May 3.

GIRL FEARS HER FATHER

DAUGHTER OF A. R. EMERY BELIEVES THAT HER LIFE IS IN DANGER.

The case of A. R. Emery, accused of disturbing the peace of his daughter, Anna C. Emery, at her home, 1260 East Tenth street, was continued this morning by Police Judge Smith until May 5 for a jury trial.

According to the daughter, her father has been attempting to obtain an audience with her ever since he was released from the Stockton Asylum several weeks ago.

She has steadfastly refused to meet her father because of fear of bodily harm. Emery maintains that he is being defrauded of his property, which he has tried to recover through search warrant proceedings on several occasions.

On Tuesday he saw the back door of the flat where his daughter resides open.

It had heretofore been kept closed for the benefit of Emery, and it was his first opportunity to get inside of the house.

According to C. White, who lives in the same building, he saw the father coming and hid an 8-year-old son, who Emery is alleged to have tried to kidnap on several occasions, within a neighbor's house.

He then returned to find Emery in a great rage, and at the request of the daughter and the wife he telephoned the police, who came in time to place Emery under arest.

He has not yet been able to provide bail.

BUILDING FUND FOR ST. PAULS

A building fund has been established by the congregation of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, more than $3,700 being donated in cash and $3,300 additional being pledged.

Just before Easter a circular letter was sent to the members of the church stating the need of an enlarged and more conveniently situated building. There is a site at the corner of Webster and Twenty-third streets that is considered particularly desirable for the purpose of building a church thereon, and this lot was mentioned to the members in the aforesaid circular letter.

The replies received on Easter Sunday were more than satisfactory, and negotiations were begun yesterday toward the acquiring of the property described, and it is thought that it will be secured in the course of the next few days.

The trustees of St. Paul's are more than proud of the response to their call, as this contribution far exceeds any former achievement recorded in Oakland's ecclesiastical history.

LINCOLN ASSEMBLY NO. 7.

Lincoln Assembly No. 7 is having a boom. The drill team of Washington No. 3 of San Francisco, was present by invitation of the members of Lincoln Asembly at Lorin Hall, South Berkeley, last Thursday evening and initiated four candidates. After the meeting adjourned the visiting members were asked to partake of refreshments in the banquet room which was prettily decorated for the occasion by a committee of ladies of Lincoln Assembly. Chairman Pushie called on several of the visitors for remarks, which was ably responded to by nearly all who came as delegates from San Francisco.

Oakland No. 2 will move into Ben Hur Temple, 1060 Broadway on May 1st, and hereafter will meet on Friday evening of each week. On the evening of May 12th a large class of candidates will be initiated and the charter of Oakland Assembly No. 2 will be presented by Speaker of the Senate Judge George Samuels.

Several other Senate officers will also be present.

Garfield Assembly No. 6 will initiate more new candidates tonight and several others will be ready for initiation one week later.

GRAND ORIENT.

A grand rally of Alameda Council No 1 will be held at its Assembly Chambers, No. 521 Twelfth street, Friday evening. Business of vital interest to the Council, and to the order universal will be brought up for discussion.

FORM CLUB AT NEWARK

YOUNG WOMEN WILL PLAY BASKET-BALL—PERSONAL NOTES.

NEWARK, April 27.—Mr. Thompson has nearly completed his duties as census marshal and reports that there are fewer children of school age than last year.

WILL FORM CLUB.

Young ladies of Newark to the number of ten or more will form a club for the purpose of playing basketball and will hold a meeting soon to perfect their organization.

PERSONALS.

Miss Emma Bole spent two days this week visiting friends in San Jose.

Miss Hattie Lovejoy has returned from visiting friends in San Francisco.

The Newark baseball team will play the team from Alvarado Sunday next on the Newark grounds. The Alvarado team, it is said, is unusually strong, and the Newarkers are confident that they can equal it. The game will be called at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp.

Arthur Biddle received a sample box of oranges grown at Bloomington, San Bernardino county, Cal. The donor, Charles Wilhelm, frequently visited his relatives, the Reisinger family, and is pleasantly remembered by those who made his acquaintance.

FLOTO SHOWS

The Great Floto Shows carry a large amount of live stock. Horses numbering 320 have to be cared for every day. It takes tons of provender to feed these horses and the menagerie.

The animals of the menagerie are generally of the most interest. The hardiest and longest lived and most interrigent is the elephant. Some of the largest of the show are used to push the heavy wagons about the "lot" when the show is setting up. One morning an elephant became enraged at his driver and wheeled quickly and struck at the man with his trunk. The beady eyes of the animal glistened as he trumpeted his anger. The keeper lashed the big brute with his whip and subdued him without any damage being done. Had the man been hit by the blow it would have killed him. When an elephant gets so bad that he is dangerous, the owners have the animal killed, and the next season a substitute takes his place, although the killing of an elephant means a loss of several thousand dollars.

The most delicate animal is the giraffe. They take cold easily and often die of hasty consumption. Seals are hardy, but they are difficult to train. Probably the hardest animal to train is the wild African zebra. They will not give up to man. They will be killed before they will obey. Sometimes hybrids are seen, and they resemble the full-blooded animal.

The Floto Shows carry everything that can be found in a good sized city. With the aggregation is a blacksmith, a barber, harness-maker, two painters, gilder, cooks, bakers, electricians, a minister, the show's own attorney and its two veterinary doctors, besides its own family physician.

Not many shows carry their own electric light plant. This is a feature of the Floto Shows, and the big tent is as light as day within. Linemen are employed to keep the plant in running order.

No one who is not in touch with the show can form an idea of the enormity of it. It is a small city in itself, constantly on the move, but with all kinds of methodical provisions for its running.

Two exhibits are given daily, rain or shine, and in case of inclement weather, water proof tents insure ample protection and comfort.

The big shows will be here May 1.

SET FOR TRIAL.

Miss Della Schafer, cashier of the F. Thomas Dyeing and Cleaning Works of San Francisco, who was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. Isabella Martin on a charge of having secured a warrant to search her home without probable cause, was a trifle late this morning in appearing before Police Judge Samuels for trial and the Court ordered her bail, $5, forfeited. The young lady put in an appearance a few moments later, however, and the Court set aside the order forfeiting the bail. The case was continued, however, until July 12 for trial.

TO LEASE LANDS.

LAWTON, O. T., April 27.—The 390,000 acres of Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indian lands now leased for grazing purposes to cattlemen are to be leased on July 1 for agricultural purposes. Such is the text of a communication received here from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to-day.

BODY FOUND.

EUREKA, April 27.—A body believed to be that of Wilhelm Swanson, a fisherman, has been found on the beach here. Swanson was drowned off Humboldt bar a number of days ago. The body was badly decomposed and difficult of identification.

ANOTHER STEP IN WATER SUIT

COMMISSIONER - IN - CHANCERY FILES REPORT ON MANY EXCEPTIONS.

The report of E. A. Heacock, standing master-in-chancery, in the case of the Contra Costa Water Company vs. the City of Oakland, in the United States District Court in San Francisco, to prevent this city from collecting rates for water under the ordinance of the Council passed in 1904, has just been received by Attorneys W. R. Davis and R. M. Fitzgerald, counsel for Oakland and Garret McEnerney and Francis J. Heney, counsel for the complainant.

The report covers fifteen exceptions filed by the water company, in the nature of a demurrer.

Two of these exceptions, by agreement with counsel for the defendant, were stricken out. The other thirteen were overruled by the master-in-chancery.

The next step in the proceedings will be the replication of the complainant and the case will be called next Monday at 10 o'clock in the United States District Court, San Francisco.

The time will then, in all probability, be set for the filing of the replication which will be the next rule day which is sometime in June, unless the complainant should file notice of resistance to the report of the master-in-chancery, in which event, that notice would have to be disposed of.

In the absence of such notice and the filing and disposition of the replication, and order of reference to take testimony in the great case will be issued.

This case was begun in June of last year, by the filing of a petition for an injunction to restrain the City of Oakland from enforcing the ordinance in question of the Council of this city, passed about that time. This injunction was granted by Judge Gilbert who at the time of the granting of the same was holding court in Oregon.

FORFEITS BAIL.

W. L. Harrington, who is alleged to have seriously interfered with the quiet of the Gas Kitchen restaurant two nights ago, this morning forfeited $25 bail in Police Judge Smith's court in preference to standing trial.

A Queer Idea of Friendship.

The Fresno Republican criticizes the appointments of Mayor Lyon on the ground that he had selected men active in promoting his success—" a consideration," it says, "which should have no weight whatever." But, it adds, most of the appointees are personally unobjectionable. If they are personally unobjectionable, why should not the Mayor select his appointees from among his friends? He would be foolish and ungrateful if he did not.

The namby-pamby theory that a man elected to a responsible public position should select his subordinates from among his opponents rather than from among his supporters has no place in common sense or the practical affairs of life. It is born of political lassitude and the spirit of inciviism which holds that political partisanship is criminal and that activity in behalf of a candidate or a principle is something to be discouraged and punished. It is the cry of the invertebrates and man-mulmers of politics—the dilletante statesmen, who deem it undignified to participate in primaries. It voices the pedantic (and pusillanimous) philosophy that a cause or an administration is safer in the hands of its enemies than in the hands of its friends.

When a man is elected or appointed to an office all that can reasonably be expected of him is a faithful performance of the duties committed to his charge. It is but natural that he should give his friends the preference in selecting his subordinates. That is what men of sense usually do in the conduct of their private affairs. They do not regard friendship as a disqualification. Other things being equal, they take the friend, and even strain a point in his favor. It is the same in politics A man would stamp himself as a hopeless idiot were he to say to an applicant for employment, "You have been my friend, therefore I cannot employ you." It is the same in politics.

Of course the Mayor of Fresno is obligated to choose for his subordinates men who are honest and capable, but why should he not choose the honest and capable among his own supporters? The editor of the Fresno Republican is different from most men, however, for he says the appointment of friends is "bad in principle." No wonder his name was found at the bottom of the poll when the election returns came in. The man who believes that his friends are disqualified from receiving political favors at his hands will generally find himself with very few friends when he aspires to office himself. His philosophy is too sublimated and altruistic for the common run of men whose blood runs red in their veins, and who stand by their friends and their friends' friends without inquiring too closely into the abstract merits of every quarrel. The great majority of mankind still subscribe to the maxim of Robert Greathouse, "I had rather be wrong and be with my friends and be right and be with my enemies" Fortunately, a Mayor of Fresno may be right and still be with his friends.

THE TRIBUNE presents its compliments to W. Parker Lyon and is happy in the knowledge that he hails from Oakland. There is nothing aenemic about him, it seems, but much of the honest-hearted partiality for friends that sweetens life and flavors it with affection and prejudice. God made brains and heart to go together, and when they part company the devil's to pay.

At a special election to vote school bonds in Reno, only 88 votes out of a registered total of 2,300 were cast. This is not a convincing argument in favor of the referendum.

San Francisco's Latest Sensation.

The salary of the Tax Collector of San Francisco is $4,000 a year He has to give a large bond, and he handles from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 a year He has within his gift a large patronage, hence his office is one eagerly sought after by politicians; consequently the expense of making a canvass for election is very great. And San Francisco is an expensive town to electioneer in It should be clear that the salary is wholly inadequate to the responsibility attached to the office and the expense of getting it; besides, a man competent to administer so important an office, involving so large a trust, is worth more than $4,000 a year. Thieves and incompetents will take the office on any terms—as San Francisco is now realizing. The Tax Collector is a fugitive from justice, bearing with him nearly $100,000 of the taxpayers' money. Whether the amount of his defalcation can be recovered from his bondsmen is not yet known, but none the less, the incident carries its lesson. Men who knew Edward J. Smith well were aware that his daily expenses about town exceeded his salary, yet he maintained his family in elegant style and supported one or more females in luxury. The climax was logical and inevitable.

The display of new bonnets at the various churches on Easter morning was a convincing testimonial to prosperity if not to the piety of the wearers.

The bill to tax bachelors has been voted down in the Wisconsin Legislature. It is now in order for somebody to introduce a bill to tax idiots.

Joe Jefferson is dead, but Klaw & Erlanger survive. Is this a case of the survival of the fittest?

The shooting down of a Texas Congressman and several others at a meeting called to petition the Governor to send a detachment of rangers to enforce the local option law, suggests that the rangers are more urgently needed to enforce the law against murder. But Texas is a queer country and violating the liquor law down there may be deemed a more heinous offense than homicide.

President Elliot's Evasion.

President Elliot of Harvard says "money never smells," nevertheless Holy Writ says it is the root of all evil. We are inclined to agree with President Eliot that the American Board did right in taking Rockefeller's money, but it would nevertheless lend gaiety to the discussion if the venerable president of Harvard would meet the points raised by Rev. Washington Gladden and others. His conclusion may be right, but somehow he has put the question at issue aside. He has sustained the Board of Missions without giving Rockefeller a certificate of character or expressing any opinion regarding the oil king's financial methods. Mr. Rockefeller's mode of acquiring money and his manner of dealing with his fellow man really furnish the subject of discussion. The disposition of his donation to the American Board counts for nothing. The only part it played in the controversy was to make the donor the subject of debate in the churches; it forced an issue that demands attention—one that must in time profoundly affect the integrity of religious organizations. Hence, it is disappointing to find the president of Harvard University evading the issue, and reaching a conclusion on the minor question through a flippant epigram which sacrifices truth in essence to a sophistical literalism The public would like to know what Dr. Elliot thinks of John D. Rockefeller as a citizen, business man, Christian and philanthropist. Without expression on that point, Dr. Elliot's approval of the action of the American Board is a mere detour around the issue. It is Mr. Rockefeller, not the money or the American Board, that is under review. It is Mr. Rockefeller's character that decides whether the Board did right or not. In the language of the urchin at the circus, Dr. Elliot has got out by crawling under the canvas.

An Abuse of the Law.

A Los Angeles milkman has had an employe who left his service arrested on a charge of stealing ten cents. On the face of it, this is a case of malicious prosecution—a palpable attempt to use the machinery of justice to vent a private grudge. The cowardly and vicious character of the proceeding speaks for itself. Naturally the accused man declined to submit the case to the judgment of the petty magistrate who issued the warrant, and called for a jury trial. So the taxpayers will be put to considerable expense by the effort of the complaining witness to make the law the instrument of an ignoble revenge. Thus the law is abused, a citizen outraged and the public put to an unnecessary expense to aid a persecution. It was never contemplated that the law should be prostituted to such base uses, and happily it provides a mode of punishing men who so abuse it. The complaining witness may be required to pay all the costs of the prosecution in case the jury acquits, as it undoubtedly will, or he may be prosecuted for perjury in swearing out the complaint, and finally he is liable to a civil action in damages for instituting a malicious prosecution. The magistrate will be derelict if he does not make him pay the costs. In this connection, it is to be said that the criminal courts are too frequently abused by malicious prosecutors. They are more often abused by shysters and their clients to enforce the collection of debts of doubtful legality. It often occurs that men will pay a claim not collectable by law to avoid the inconvenience, expense and unpleasant notoriety of standing trial on a disgraceful charge. The costs of whatever proceedings are taken are borne by the taxpayers. It is the duty of magistrates and prosecuting attorneys to protect citizens and the public against such abuse of the machinery of justice, but too often it is a duty neglected.

The Duke of Manchester thinks the marriage of Carnegie's niece to a coachman in entire accord with the fitness of things. The chances are that Nancy will be happier with a poor coachman than with a poor Duke for a husband. Somehow the fact that the young woman calls herself Nancy gives one the idea that she is good goods—all wool and a yard wide. It is to her credit that she allowed her heart and not the glitter of a title to lead her into matrimony. When we run back over the careers of the Duke of Manchester and his late father, the sneer of his grace loses much of its bitterness.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Oakland Citizens Show the Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyances of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what an Oakland citizen says:

Mrs. I. Stewart, Model Confectionery and Bakery, No 837 San Pablo avenue says: "If all troubled with pain in the back could have it ended as quickly and as thoroughly as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at a drug store, ended mine, then that far too prevalent annoyance would cease to have any terrors for ladies who will take a course of the treatment with this strengthening and curative remedy. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers, I was sadly in need of something for an attack of backache just like many of its predecessors. The treatment acted just as stated and relief followed in a surprisingly short space of time."

DR. M'CLATCHEY DISSENTS.

Dr. Mouteaux, of Oakland, has written a book in which he denies that mosquitoes are responsible for the spread of either malaria, or yellow fever. He argues at much length with regard to both diseases, but seem not to know that his theories were all swept away by scientific experiment long ago. He speaks of yellow fever as contagious, although the best authorities now agree that it is communicated solely through the bite of a certain species of mosquito.—Sacramento Bee.

TO JOSEPH JEFFERSON.

(In appreciation of his Autobiography. 1892.)

Men said thine art had reached its perfect flower,
In the lone outcast of the Catskill height,
Who, after twenty years of dreamless night,
Came, like a patriarch from the past, with power
To lave men's souls in laughter, dashed with tears,
Like sunshine slain within an April shower.
But now we know thou has a richer dower;
For all the fruitage of the opulent years
Hangs clustering at thy touch. The joy we knew,
Beneath thy gracious Art's most potent sway.
Is trebled in the love that pulses through
Thy written words, like music in a play.
In knowing thee as Actor we were blest;
As Author and as Man we love thee best.

English Society Leader Discusses Affairs of

SMART SET

Actresses and Divorce Among the Subjects

SOCIETY AND DIVORCE IS DISCUSSED BY WOMAN, A LEADER IN THE ENGLISH SMART SET

There can be no one in England who has a better understanding of the whole art of entertaining than Lady Jeune. There would seem to be no subject with which she is not familiar, no one of consequence with whom she is not acquainted. For many years Lady Jeune has occupied a position as hostess which no one else could fill. The retirement of her husband, Sir Francis Jeune, from the presidency of the Divorce Court, and his elevation to the peerage as Lord St. Helier, has caused husband and wife to be much written about in the press of late, but the death of her only son a few months ago has thrown the family into mourning, and determined Lady Jeune not to write for the press, and still less to be interviewed. But characteristically Lady Jeune could not refuse the claims of friendship, however slight those claims may be, and so her consent was kindly given to the following interview:

THIRTY YEARS OF ENGLISH SOCIETY.

"English society has changed a great deal in the last thirty years," said Lady Jeune. "Thirty years ago, for instance, people with small incomes did not keep a carriage. The women did not dress as they do now, but on the other hand, at that time each costume was more expensive than now. In fact, the cheapening of food and clothes, and the other necessaries of life is the outstanding feature of the last thirty years, and although this explains much, yet life was very much simpler in the seventies. In the arrangements for dinner, for example, there were fewer flowers, less decoration generally, and not the present custom of placing a super-abundance of silver upon the table. Everything was much more homely.

"I must admit that the tendency of today is for most people to try to live up to the standard set by those better off than themselves. This applies to all ranks of life, and as the standard of expenditure has become so high, this tendency has a bad effect on people with small incomes. The rich Americans and those who have made money in South Africa spend a great deal, and everywhere there appears to be a desire to emulate those who are wealthy. Many of these rich people have come into English society, and I do not see that there is any reason why they should not. In so many instances they have paid handsomely for their footing.

THERE IS NO REAL SMART SET.

"No, I have not been able to recognize that there is in English society any so-called 'smart set.' I should say that the Duchess of Buccleuch is the best representative of the true English aristocrat, but the gatherings at Montagu House are of a somewhat cosmopolitan character. Then again, invitations today are sent out in a different way from that of twenty years ago. Miss —— is a good looking girl, and a hostess will say, if she comes to my ball its eclat will be increased. Consequently Miss —— is invited in a roundabout way, although she may not be acquainted with her hostess. Money seems to be the one thing that every one wants, and people will go anywhere to be amused, and the richest people are those who give the finest entertainments.

"The actress is received in English society in a way which I believe is not the case in New York. I remember many Americans when they first came to England expressed their surprise at meeting actresses at dinner in fashionable circles. The prejudice against actresses took some time to die in this country, and for a long time the late Queen was very strict about receiving them, but adopted a different view a few years before she died, as she always invited the leaders of the theatrical world to her garden parties at Buckingham Palace. Princess Henry of Battenburg was very fond of the theater, and encouraged theatricals in the royal household, and thus it happened that the Queen used to receive the players after the performance was over, giving them presents, shaking hands and chatting pleasantly with them, so no one could protest after that. Personally, I believe that the English actress is usually the most exemplary woman and that the tone of private life of most actresses is very high indeed.

"Then again, society has changed very much in admitting to its circles not only the man of ability, the literary 'lion' of the old days, but his women-folk as well."

I think I ought to interpolate here that Lady Jeune was perhaps the pioneer in this very proper reform in the etiquette of our social arrangements. In her case, if an eminent man hitherto unknown in society was invited to dinner, it was a matter of course with Lady Jeune to invite his wife also. Yet, for a long time, people did not do this, and it now seems a remarkable fact that the writer or artist, or man of science, would accept an invitation to those houses where his wife was not invited.

NEVER ASKS FAVORS OF HER GUESTS.

"So far as I am concerned," Lady Jeune continued, "in all these long years I have never asked any one to my house with the idea of helping me in any way. I have never asked any one to sing or play for me. In other words, I have never invited any one for the purpose of getting anything out of him. If he expressed the wish to do anything, that was another matter, but the suggestion never came from me.

"In those days, men high up in the political world would be asked without their wives. The position of woman in what one may call the professional class has also altered in that respect. In the old days the woman of intellectual attainment was always regarded as being a little bohemian.

"In regard to what we call society with a big 'S,' I think the standard of morality is much higher than it used to be. If there are some who do not possess a high moral code, I think they are much more anxious than used to be the case, that anything which they do, not in accord with a high moral code, shall not be known even to those with whom they are most closely associated. If they are not virtuous, they do at least pay that tribute to virtue. Whereas thirty or forty years ago the doings of this small minority were much more open and undisguised.

"I am not surprised to hear that President Roosevelt regards the divorce laws of the States as being too lax. It used to be said that you could be married and divorced in an hour. All you had to do was to be married in one State, get into the train, travel a few miles and be divorced in the next. I do not believe that any society can have any stability where the marriage laws are not strict. In Scotland divorce can be obtained either for cruelty or misconduct, not necessarily both, as is the case in England, but in some of the States almost any pretext seems to serve for divorce. Moreover, in the States divorce seems to be no bar to retaining your social position. One of my acquaintances assured me that he found himself at a big dinner in the company of a lady whose three former husbands were there at the same time. Then, too a woman who has been living rather under a cloud may marry a rich man, and he will succeed in getting her received into society. Money can do that in America, but it cannot do that in England."—New York World.

REMARKABLE LAWSUITS BROUGHT BY WOMAN

NEW YORK, April 27.—Mrs. Isabelle S. Cunningham, of No. 66 Clifton place, Brooklyn, has begun a remarkable series of lawsuits in the Supreme Court. First she sues her husband, Joseph T. Cunningham, who she says is connected with the National Electric Company, of Milwaukee, for a limited divorce, naming an exceedingly pretty young woman, Lizzie Dempsey, who, she alleges, he maintains, and by whom, she swears, he has had two children.

Mrs. Cunningham sues Lizzie Dempsey for $100,000 damages for alienation of her husband's affections.

Furthermore, she asks for an injunction restraining Lizzie Dempsey from representing herself as Mrs. Joseph T. Cunningham.

Mrs. Cunningham is represented by George Robinson, who has served upon Mr. Cunningham an order to show cause why he should not pay his wife $50 a week alimony.

In the separation suit Mrs. Cunningham sets forth that she and Mr. Cunningham were married at Boston in 1894. They have no children. Mrs. Cunningham asserts that for six years her husband has been living with Lizzie Dempsey. She adds that her husband six years ago "wilfully and deliberately" abandoned her, notwithstanding that she had repeatedly asked him to return. She also asserts that while her husband has an income of $100 a week he refuses to pay her more than $8 a week.

Of Miss Dempsey she says: "Her flat is furnished in the most expensive manner, said furniture having been purchased by the defendant. Last Christmas he gave her a handsome piano. He must be a very wealthy man, owing to the fact that he lives in handsome style."

In her suit against Lizzie Dempsey, Mrs. Cunningham alleges that about January 1, 1899, Lizzie Dempsey "wilfully and maliciously, intending to injure this plaintiff, and deprive her of the love, society and affection of her husband," induced him to desert her.

In the third action, Mrs. Cunningham asserts that Lizzie Dempsey is "wrongfully contriving to injure the plaintiff, maliciously and wilfully holds herself out as the wife of the said Joseph T. Cunningham, calling herself and introducing herself to divers people and to the public at large as Mrs. Joseph T. Cunningham, causing your plaintiff to be held up to contempt and ridicule, and otherwise injuring her fair name."

Mr. Cunningham has retained William D. McNulty, and has served upon Mrs. Robinson notice that he will move for an order striking out of Mrs. Cunningham's complaint, as "irrelevant and scandalous," the paragraph that alleges that he is living with Lizzie Dempsey. Mr. McNulty will also move for an order requiring the complaint to set forth the date on which the marriage between the plaintiff and defendant is alleged to have taken place, and the time and place of the alleged abandonment.

WORKED FOR 34 YEARS NOW WANTS HER PAY

NEW YORK, April 27.—The case of Mrs. Minnie Torloting who is suing her husband, Michael Torloting, for an accounting for rents and a division of property in his name estimated to be worth $20,000, has been taken under advisement by Judge Taylor in the Circuit Court.

Mrs. Torloting confesses to being 51 years old, but as she sat on the witness stand, telling a story of 34 years of hard work and pinching economy, she did not look more than 35. She is fleshy, but her face is soft and of excellent color; her brow is almost entirely devoid of wrinkles, and her hair, of golden yellow, has no hint of gray.

Mrs. Torloting testified that when she married, at the age of 17, she had $400 which she had saved during five years of work in a bag factory, and this was invested by her husband and the property put in his name. Later, when she received $700 from her mother's estate, she says she also gave it to her husband to invest in the same way. She said she did sewing for neighbors, and took in washing, all the money for which she saved and gave her husband for investment. When she asked him to put some of the property in her name, she said, he replied that he was thirteen years older than she and would die first; then she would have all the property. She told of raising ten children, six of whom are living.

"Do you mean to say you did all this work and took care of ten young children?" asked Judge Taylor.

"I did all the work," replied the witness, "but you know all the children were not young at the same time."

Torloting, in his own defense, denied that his wife had given him the sums she claimed to have given, or that she did the hard work she said she did. He said he made all the money himself, and gave her $10 a week on which to run the house.

The Torlotings were married in 1871 and separated in 1898. Both filed suit for divorce, and Torloting secured one on appeal, his allegations including violent temper. Mrs. Torloting lives in the first house they purchased, a frame building at Twenty-fourth and Dickson streets.

TOO MUCH LOVE BROKE UP HIS HOME

CHICAGO, April 27.—Milton C. Schenck, in his defense for abandoning his wife, told Justice Mahoney that he was compelled to leave home because of the unremitting caresses of a wife who loved him too much, and believed in a perpetual honeymoon.

"She would call me up on the telephone, and we would have a conversation like this:

"'Is this my ownsie boysie?'

"'Yes, dear.'

"'Come home and kiss your little wifie,' she would command, "and, Judge, I just had to do it."

"She would call me home suddenly, taking me from my work. When I arrived, fearing that some accident had befallen her, she would meet me at the door. Then she would say: 'Why didn't tootsie kiss his honey-bunch goodbye this morning?'

"It was a case of either give up work and live on love or give up love and eat. And, Judge, I couldn't live on love," concluded Milton.

"That's a good kind of a wife to have," said the Court, "and I am going to hold you for the Grand Jury."

JIMMY DUFFY ON DR. LEGGO.

"Cut out the cherry," said Duffy, as the bartender stirred his morning "hahnenschwanz."

"It's too bad about the doctor," he remarked, as he drained the morning glory.

"Doc Canty?" inquired Mister Billy.

"I was addressing my remarks to Dr. Leggo," said Duffy, "and if you and Dan Denahy will quit butting in like a pair of trimmers, I'll tell you some dope on the greatest galloper that was ever bred. And it won't lay down the hand for Emperor Norfolk, the mare Los Angeles, Firenzi or even El Rio Rey."

"Get off your foot," interrupted Denahy.

"Well," said Duffy, ignoring the repartee, "when a 3-year-old goes three-quarters in 1:13½ it's going some and then he was doing nothing.

"Say, you pikers, lamp the dope. Here's the most remarkable horse that ever came through with the goods at Emeryville and he's an illy bred pony, at that. His sire was 'White Hat' McCartley's Puryear D., considered nothing more than a fast selling plater. Old Nick Hall had a mare called Sevens—a fast mare, all right, all right, but she never attained any greatness."

"Get wise to the rhetoric," observed Mister Billy.

"Cut that," said Duffy, with a show of anger. "If I'm going to tell you about Dr. Leggo I don't want any crowding. Get busy with the glassware, Mr. Grog Clerk.

"As I was saying, both Puryear D. and Sevens were well bred, but neither had demonstrated anything in particular.

"Adolph Spreckels, who was buying horses to eat up his alfalfa gets hold of Puryear D. and turns him loose.

"The horse was bred to several mares including Sevens. Then Spreckels listened to a fellow supposed to have the dope and was advised to give Puryear the drift. He took the advice and bought English stallions. But before he gave Puryear, the iron horse, away, the mare Sevens had borne a bay colt that will go down in history as one of the marvels of the turf.

"This colt, Dr. Leggo, was shipped with others to Chicago. Charley McCafferty liked the looks of the youngster and took him over for $1,200.

"It took time to develop this colt, but it was not long before he showed a lot of class. He brought home the money in the East several times and then McCafferty brought him back to his own soil. Here he proved to be the most marvelous 3-year-old on the circle. He has given weight and beaten every colt of his own age at the track. He walked in in the California derby, rolled in at the Ascot derby and returned from Los Angeles to beat the best of 'em at Emeryville, and all the time he wasn't doing a thing.

"He stepped a mile in 1:39 with weight up; he ran three miles and Conly lost to Elie through bad riding. In this race two seconds were clipped off the world's record. A week later he conceded weight and age and scored another victory at three-sixteenth. Then he went six furlongs without an effort and took the money.

"In none of his races has he been compelled to exert all his strength and he usually has the others at his mercy. Wait till next season's derbies. He will skin Claud a league at sea."

"Is that the inside dope, the double-brew brand?" asked Denahy.

"Take it or leave it," said Jimmy. "The horse, I say, is right," and he added to the barkeeper, "Get busy with your pencil for the last three."

JOCKEY HURT 2 YEARS AGO HIS DEATH NOW RESULTS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 27.—Thomas O'Brien, formerly a successful jockey, died at St. Joseph's Hospital from appoplexy, thought to have been brought on by a fall from his horse while racing in New Orleans two years ago.

His collarbone was broken and he received internal injuries from which he never entirely recovered.

HIGH SCHOOLS IN TENNIS MATCHES.

The annual doubles tournament for the inter-scholastic tennis championship will be held next Saturday on the courts of the Oakland Tennis Club, East Oakland. R. Clinch and L. Rowell of the Berkeley High School won the championship last year, defeating the Long brothers of Lowell in the final match. The improved game of the local players, however, indicates that the doubles trophies will be brought to this side of the bay this season.

The drawings for the doubles are as follows: C. Foley and H. Getz (Polytechnic) vs. Belcher and Butler (Oakland High); W. Sherwood and W. Foster (Alameda High) vs. the Long brothers (Lowell); M. Hotchkiss and H. Gabriel (California School of Mechanical Arts) vs. Cheney and Powell (Berkeley High); C. Lagardo and F. John (Wilmerding High School), a bye.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. The line-up is as follows:

BOAT CLUB OFFICERS CHOSEN.

BERKELEY, April 27.—At the annual election of the University Boat Club yesterday afternoon seven directors were elected for 1905-06. The men who will manage the boating interests are: A. Salisbury, '07; W. A. Schmidt, '06; H. W. Carpenter, '06; G. Jones, '07; L. Evans, '07; C. R. McKillican, '07, and H. Schaufele, '08.

The new board will meet soon and elect officers for the ensuing year. They will also discuss various locations for the new boathouse, which is to be built next semester.

It has been finally decided that the 'Varsity crew will leave here on May 15 by steamer, going direct to Seattle. They will take part in the international regatta at Victoria, B. C., on May 24, after which they return to Seattle. Washington's crew will compete in the Victoria races, as will also many Canadian crews. This race determines the Pacific Coast championship crew.

On May 30 the second intercollegiate race with Washington will be rowed on Lake Washington, Seattle. The victorious crew wins the Lippy cup as a permanent trophy. The freshman crew will not leave Berkeley until the 29th, rowing the Washington freshmen the same day the 'Varsity crews compete.

OAKLAND FALLS TO SECOND PLACE.

Lose to San Francisco; Tacoma is in the Lead.

Thud! Also, thump!

Oakland has dropped into second place in the scramble after the rag, while Tacoma, made famous by M. Fisher, now occupies first position.

It happened yesterday when Van Haltren paid the ferry-fare of his hired hands to enable them to grapple with the Seals on the Eighth-street lot across the bay.

The Whale was on the mud hills for Harris, while Schmidt passed out the bound leathers for the Commuters.

The Smilion One began by passing out a free ticket to a Seal and then hitting the next barker up.

'Twas then that Oakland's infield degenerated and the session was one of run making for San Francisco.

SUCCESSFUL LADIES' NIGHT GIVEN BY RELIANCE CLUB.

The members of the Reliance Athletic Club and their friends witnessed a very entertaining program in the club gymnasium last night. It was ladies' night and every seat was filled by the fair ones and their escorts. All the productions were good and received generous applause.

BOXING BOUTS.

The chief event was a double boxing match, in which one pair of fighters wore blackened gloves. They were Fallon and Brown, and both quickly became covered with soot. Honors were even and the fighting was fast and furious. The first mark upeared on the countenance of Fallon after a half minute of cautious sparring.

While these two were resting between rounds Parker and Smith boxed with ordinary gloves. In the second round the former made a wild lunge at Smith and, as this was dodged, Parker's left glove flew off and half way across the gym.

In the third round they began an exhibition display, each striking the other's shoulder with both hands together. Smith was suddenly stretched out flat by one of these blows, but was dragged to his feet by Referee Paul Carroll and immediately knocked down Parker. This closed the bout.

RELIANCE ORCHESTRA.

The program was commenced with two selections played by the Reliance orchestra.

George Teslo then appeared, disguised by a false beard and an artistically ragged suit of clothes. He did some very creditable juggling with balls, clubs and china plates.

Carl meanwhile performed on the horizontal bar, winning enthusiastic applause with a double somersault.

FENCING BOUT.

Next on the program was a fencing bout between Dr. Hackett and Brandway Head. Before the real work began there was a pretty exhibition of the most graceful motions of the swordsman.

Then they fenced for five minutes, two halves of two and one-half minutes each. In the first of these the doctor was touched more often than his opponent, but was the better in the second. He was disarmed once during this half, but Emil Fritsch, the instructor of the club, explained that this was no sign of defeat.

RELIANCE QUARTET.

After the fencing the Reliance Club quartet, composed of J. F. McVey, F. Griffing, J. Trowbridge and F. Figone, sang three selections, being twice encored.

Otto Redler followed with an exhibition of club swinging, which earned much applause. Several of his stunts were exceedingly graceful as well as difficult of performance.

Avill and Grimm performed a number of feats on the Roman rings, which were productive of much applause. The four Close brothers did their tumbling act and made a fine exhibition. The youngest of the quartet, a little boy scarcely 6 years of age, threw double somersaults and back flips with a fearlessness that won great applause.

BARNEY BERNARD.

After the boxing, which was next on the program, Barney Bernard, the well-known impersonator, appeared as a Hebrew, and told two interesting stories in that dialect. Following this was the potato race. There were four entries. The victory was won by Phil Hess.

BASKETBALL GAME.

By a score of 9 to 3 the Reliance basketball team beat the Titan team from the San Francisco Y. M. C. A.

The first goal was made by the visitors after each side had made two attempts at a basket by a free throw. Before another goal was made the bass drum artist in the orchestra was knocked from his chair by the ball, but was found to be unhurt when rescued.

Four goals from the field were made by the Reliance players and one basket on a free throw before the visitors could score again. Only a minute before time was up the Titans secured their third point by a throw from the goal line.

The team from the city was handicaped by lack of acquaintance with the court as well as being a lighter team than their opponents.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN WILL MEET IN FIELD-DAY

Teams representing all the '08 classes in the various high schools about the bay will hold a track meet on the University of California cinder-path on the afternoon of May 13, if the grounds can be secured on that date.

A field day for freshmen in the various high schools has never before been held on this coast, and if the one proposed is a success, and there is no reason why it shouldn't be, then it will be made a feature henceforth with the young athletes.

The first class athletes in the Oakland High School are training hard for the coming event, working out at the Market-street cinder-path.

The freshmen track captain, Free, of the Oakland High School, is certain that the meeting of the wearers of the '08 will be a hard-fought battle.

The final try-outs for the team which is to represent the Oakland High School in the field-day will be held next Tuesday afternoon at Fifteenth and Market streets.

IF LOUIE LONG WINS HE MAY FIGHT NELSON

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

MARYSVILLE, April 27.—The twenty round glove contest between Jack Cordell and Louie Long, which takes place in this city Saturday night, the 29th inst., is attracting much attention from sporting men all along the coast.

The men are to box straight rules for a big purse and the winner will meet Battling Nelson in this city on May 9th.

Nelson's manager has signed an agreement to this effect and it is understood that this match will take place on that date.

Cordell and Long are in excellent shape and both are very confident of winning. Joe Melendez, of Oroville, and Joe Reed, of Marysville, will meet in a six-round contest and Ah Foo, the Chinaman, and "Fighting Bob" will box four rounds.

FABIOLA DAY AT THE TRACK

The Fabiola Association has sent out the following notice:

The annual Fabiola Derby Day will be held at the Oakland Race Track, Saturday afternoon, April 29th, at 2 o'clock p. m. Through the generosity of Mr. Thomas H. Williams, Jr., and the California Jockey Club, the Fabiola Hospital receives all of the gate receipts on this day. Members of Fabiola Hospital Association will assemble at the Club House south of the grand stand and they invite the friends of the hospital to join them there.

QUESTIONS OF INTEREST IN WORLD OF SPORTS SENT TO THE TRIBUNE.

QUERIES ANSWERED.

[THE TRIBUNE has recently received numerous queries relative to sporting matters from subscribers, who depend upon the columns of this page to settle their disputes. It has heretofore been the policy of this paper to answer such queries through the mails, but the number of questions of general interest has so increased that it is deemed expedient to establish a query column. Only questions of general interest that cannot be answered by search in the ordinary books of information will be answered.—Sporting Editor.]

Baseball fans are deeply interested in the problem: How can a team make six hits in one inning without making a run? Many queries have been received by this department for an answer, but the editor has referred the problem to its readers for a solution.

Here is an answer furnished by Jakey Baumgarten, whose knowledge of baseball technique and other sporting matter is unquestioned:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Six hits without making a run? The first two men come up, hit three-baggers, tried to reach it to a home run and are thrown out at the plate. The next three men hit safe, being five men at the bat and five hits already. The sixth man hits the ball and hits one of the runners between the bases, which entitled the man who hits the ball to a base hit, makes six hits in one inning without a run. J. BAUMGARTEN.

Another solution follows:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: This is my answer about the six hits in one inning and no scoring.

We will suppose that the first three batters hit safely. Then the fourth batter gives the signal for the hit and run game, but he fails to connect with the ball and the runner from third to the plate is tagged out.

There is now one out and the same batter gets a hit, but the man running to third runs too far and is tagged out. The next batter gets a hit and there are now three men on bases and two outs. The next batter bunts the ball and is tagged out because he turned the wrong way on first and the man on third running to the plate falls down and does not reach it in time.

W. B. D.

These are other solutions:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Here is my idea of your famous puzzle: If I had a baseball team that made six hits in an inning and did not score a run, it would be back to the tall timbers with the whole bunch.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Following is my solution: First three men up on one side make safe hits, three on base, no out. Next three men up strike out. Next side at bat (last half), do identically the same thing. Full inning played, six hits and no runs made.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Would suggest the following for your six-hits puzzle: First man up singles, caught stealing. Second man up singles, caught stealing. Next three men up single, filling the bases. Sixth man up singles along first-base line (which in reality is a hit), but through error of umpire same is called foul, he returns to bat and strikes out, thus making the third out, after six singles having been made.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: What, in your opinion, is the best three-year-old that has run at the Emeryville track this season? SUBSCRIBER.

Answer—Followers of the turf generally agree that Dr. Leggo is the best colt at the track. He has given some remarkable performances.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: When does an amateur fighter become a professional? K. L. C.

Answer—When he accepts money for fighting. The rule applies to all classes of sports. When an athlete engages in a contest for money he becomes a professional. The correspondent evidently has mistaken the word amateur for novice.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Is Jabez White, who is matched to fight Jimmy Britt, an Englishman or Australian? READER.

Answer—He is an Englishman.

O'ROURKE'S RESORT RAIDED; PROPRIETOR ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Detectives made a raid early today on Rathskellers in the Hotel Delavar, Fortieth street and Broadway and a saloon across the street known as "Kid McCoy's."

Proprietor Thomas O'Rourke of the Delavan, a well known sporting man, was arrested.

He gave bail to answer charges of conducting a disorderly house.

Similar charges were made against the manager of McCoy's.

In O'Rourke's three women were also arrested.

GOLFERS MEET IN FIRST ROUND.

Nineteen golfers took part in the qualifying round of the competition for the championship of the Pacific Coast Golf Association yesterday on the links of the San Rafael Golf Club. The round consisted of thirty-six holes, eighteen being played in the morning and eighteen in the afternoon. C. E. Maud of the San Francisco Golf and Country Club took first place with a score of 166, winning the silver medal of the Pacific Coast Golf Association for the lowest score in the qualifying round. His first round in the afternoon was the best of the day, the nine holes being done in 39. He also made the best returns for eighteen holes, his morning score being 81. John Lawson took second place and A. G. Harvey third place in the qualifying round. The San Francisco Golf and Country Club, the San Rafael Golf Club, the Linda Vista Golf and Country Club, the Claremont Golf Club of San Jose, the Claremont Country Club and the Los Angeles Country Club were represented in the event.

The sixteen players who made the lowest returns took part in the first round of match play this morning, being prepared as follows:

C. E. Maud vs. F. S. Stratton; H. C. Golcher vs. Dr. W. M. Carpenter; F. H. Beaver vs. J. J. Mellus; A. G. Harvey vs. J. J. Crooks; John Lawson vs. R. G. Brown; H. S. Black vs. A. S. Lilley; Carlton Curtis vs. W. J. Casey and Frank Kales vs. R. J. Davis.

JOE TIPMAN TO INVADE ENGLAND.

BALTIMORE, April 27.—Joe Tipman, the pride of Rock street, who won some notoriety by being the first man to knock down the once Terrible Terry McGovern, and who has had a varied career in the roped arena, has completed plans for an invasion of England, looking for easy things, which, however, may prove Tartars for Joe.

He said to-day that he will start his voyage accompanied by Fred Roth next Saturday, and that he has been assured a match with Ben Jordan and then the venerable battler, George Dixon.

Tipman sprang into prominence several years ago, when Terry McGovern with a traveling show met all comers at the old Holliday Street Theater. By some unforeseen accident Tipman knocked Terry down, and then Terry started to fight in earnest, but was stopped by outside interference.

Sam Harris offered Tipman thousands of dollars to get in a ring again with McGovern, but Joe was wise and boosted himself to some notoriety by having knocked down McGovern. For a time he was the pride of Rock street, where he lives, but Joe's continued practice of refusing to make weight and always picking out smaller marks, lost him his popularity, until he was compelled to take on Brooklyn Tommy Daly and Kid Sullivan, both of whom gave him weight and trounced him so that he was no longer an attraction here.

Tipman is inclined to roughing it, and how he will make out in England, where the referee sits outside and merely calls "Break!" remains to be seen.

"KID" JOSEPH LOSES THE DECISION

"Kid" Joseph of this city fought fifteen rounds with George Curran last evening at Pinole before a large crowd. At the end of the contest the decision was awarded to Curran.

The Oakland lad put up a clever aggressive fight, escaping with hardly a mark, while both of Curran's eyes were darkened by the right "kick" possessed by Joseph.

The showing made by Joseph is considered unusually good when it is considered that last night's fight was his first fifteen round journey and he has had but two three-round mills.

On the other hand Curran is the veteran of fifty-six battles.

In all probability the lads will be matched again, when Joseph expects to reverse the decision.

The music was very good and every one enjoyed the affair to the utmost.

Two teams have also been chosen, known as the social and entertainment teams, and there will be a rivalry as to which team will furnish the best entertainment. One entertainment will be given by Captain Jefress' team in May and the other by Captain Stetson's team in June. On next Monday evening Neighbor Hughes who was a delegate to the Head Session, will be present and will present a full report which will be very interesting and a large attendance is expected.

D. P. of District No. 7, and Rebekahs from all over the State were present. The members of No. 11, under the chairmanship of P. D. D. P. Sister Annie Carl had transformed the lodgeroom and banquet hall into a perfect bower of beauty. The members of the deputies' installing staff, twenty in number, all wearing white, with pink and green ribbons marched in the marshal Sister Belle Gartner escorting the deputy to the center of the hall, where she was saluted with a perfect shower of pink roses from the hands of her staff. The incoming deputy, Sister Abba Bootsma of No. 109 in a very eloquent manner presented the gifts of the district, a complete set of pearl-handled silver fruit knives, a silver bon-bon dish and spoon and a cut glass spoon tray. After which the "representative" of the staff, Sister Grace McPhail in a humorous original poem presented the deputy with a beautiful ring as their token of love. P. D. D. P. Sister Priestly of District No. 7 presented a basket of beautiful roses. Bouquets of carnations and other choice flowers were showered upon the sister to all of which she responded in a feeling manner. WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Oakland Camp No. 94 is making preparations to receive its distinguished members, Hon. I. I. Boak and Thomas M. Robinson, head consul and head manager respectively who have just been elected to the highest positions within the gift of the Woodmen.

The camp is justly proud of them and has a program arranged for their reception, which will consist of music, songs and the good things to satisfy the inner man.

The degree team of this camp, under Captain E. G. Hunt, will come in for a share of honors, they having captured the second prize in competition against ten of the crack teams of the jurisdiction, and only lost first honors owing to the fact that they had fewer men in line. All Woodmen are cordially invited to attend the reception to be tendered our honored head officers on next Monday evening and partake in the rejoicing. There will also be initiation of a large class of candidates. We are keeping up the good work and expect that this camp will reach the 1,000 mark by the 1st of July.

SUBURBAN

Retiring School Director of Alameda Remembered by Teachers—Board of Health Meeting—Notes From Encinal City

NO SENSATION CREATED BY BLUE AND GOLD.

Volume Appears on Campus, and Authorities Take the Matter With Calmness.

BERKELEY, April 27.—After much preliminary talk of "indecent cartoons," which might cause the Blue and Gold annual of the University to be suppressed by the authorities, the volume made its appearance on the campus today, and eager folk who had been told that the famous Adams brothers had been heavily "joshed" hurriedly bought copies of the book.

The Blue and Gold, edited by Jackson Gregory and produced under the business management of Prentiss N. Gray, proves to be innocent of any objectionable features. There are no cartoons calculated to arouse a commotion in a well-ordered community, and the general concensus of opinion is that the publication reflects great credit upon all who have had anything to do with its production.

The cartoons deal with University subjects, and neither professors nor student characters are spared good-humored jests leveled at them. Captain Nance receives attention as do others who have come into special prominence during the past year. The volume is profusely illustrated throughout.

PROF. M. DUPOUEY, FRENCH INSTRUCTOR AT THE UNIVERSITY, AND HIS INTERESTING FAMILY.

TEACHERS OF ALAMEDA SURPRISE MR. BROWN.

Present the Retiring School Director With Handsome Gift For His Many Courtesies.

ALAMEDA, April 27.—Cyrus A. Brown, one of the retiring School Directors, who had held the office continuously for twenty-one years, was given an agreeable surprise when the school teachers of this city, among whom he has always been popular, presented him with an appropriate and substantial token of their esteem. The presentation consisted of an elegant leather chair, and the token of remembrance was taken to Mr. Brown's residence on San Jose avenue by a delegation of teachers representing every public school in Alameda. The affair was arranged as a complete surprise for the veteran ex-member of the Board of Education, who had served the city so long and so faithfully. The plans of the ladies were carried out successfully, and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

When Mrs. A. C. Paris, a teacher of the Wilson School, made the speech of presentation, Mr. Brown was overcome by surprise and emotion, but made fitting response, thanking the ladies for their remembrance of the easy chair, which he said he now might enjoy after retiring to private life.

The committee of teachers represented the various public schools as follows: Mrs. A. C. Paris and Miss Delle Dibble, Wilson School; S. Bruce Wright, Miss Mary I. Brown and Miss Violet Turner of the Porter School; Arthur Mock, Everett School; Miss Lule I. Taft and Miss Margaret Howard, Mastic School; Miss June Painter, Mrs. C. J. Newberry and Miss Bertha Vollmar and George C. Mansfield of the High School; Miss Lottie E. Perkins, Longfellow School.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

ALAMEDA, April 27.—The Board of Free Library Trustees at a special meeting accepted with regret the resignation of Miss Carrie J. Pratt, a member of the staff, who has been elected to succeed Miss Eva Fabens as assistant secretary of the Board of Education. Miss Elizabeth Doran was appointed to succeed Miss Pratt in the Library, and the Library Trustees also selected Miss Lillian Kindred as assistant, to fill the place which has been occupied by Miss Doran. The Dibrary Board is to hold its regular session on the evening of May 3d.

GAVE A LUNCHEON.

ALAMEDA, April 27.—Mrs. W. H. Ruddell gave an "Easter luncheon" at her home, 2252 Buena Vista avenue, on Monday afternoon, the members of the Thimble Bee Club attending the affair. Mrs. G. C. Relfe won the first prize at cards, the second being awarded to Mrs. W. Cohick of Oakland, while the consolation trophy went to Mrs. C. A. Brown. Roses and ferns formed the pretty decorations, the dining-room being in yellow and white.

A WHIST TOURNAMENT.

ALAMEDA, April 27.—The ladies of St. Joseph's parish are to give a whist tournament in Lafayette Hall on the evening of May 4th, when some handsome and valuable prizes will be contested for. Kow, Mrs. Edward Burke, Miss Maguire.

Dr. Charles L. Tisdale will be in charge of the whist room and Joseph Durney will supervise the euchre room.

The committee on prizes consists of Mrs. Joseph Durney, Alexander R. Baum and Mrs. De Lorne.

The decorations will be in charge of Mrs. H. Young, Mrs. J. J. Tobin, Mrs. C. Bartlett, Mrs. C. M. Pocock, Mrs. E. Buckley, Mrs. A. B. Derby and Miss M. Kane.

A small stage will be built at one end of the hall to accommodate the musicians, and handsomely fitted up ladies' and gentlemen's parlors will open off the hall.

TACKLE A POSER

Improvement Club Takes Hold of the County Division Question.

BERKELEY, April 27.—The Ashby Improvement club at its meeting last night in Peralta fire house discussed the reorganization of the Peralta Volunteer Fire Club. It was decided to elect a district foreman to look after the wants of the local department and systematize the work in that end of the town. There is need of better apparatus in the Peralta fire department.

The vacancy in the joint committee caused by the resignation of Stacey W. Gibbs, who has moved to the north end of town, was filled by the appointment of J. Libby. R. H. Bostworth was chosen to fill the position in the legislative or "trouble committee," left vacant by the withdrawal of Mr. Gibbs.

The joint committee was then instructed to take up the matter of forming a city and county of Berkeley. Owing to the rapid growth of the city at the present time, many were of the opinion that the time is quite ripe for the consideration of the question.

GOSPEL OF BLUFF.

Bluff a little, bluff a little
As you go your way;
Bluffing may not always help you—
Many times it may.

Bluff a little, bluff a little;
Men may rail at you—
But you'll see by watching closely
That they're bluffing, too.

FRENCH GIRLS SUBJECT OF HIS TALK.

Robert Dupouey, Picturesque Figure at University, Delivers Highly Attractive Lectures.

BERKELEY, April 27.—Beginning with but a small audience that was interested in his lecture delivered in French, Robert Dupouey, instructor in French at the University, has built up his lecture courses until the large hall in the students' observatory has had to be set aside for those who desire to hear the eloquent Parisian discourse tri-weekly upon French topics in the French tongue.

Professor Dupouey is one of the picturesque figures in the force of brilliant men who give instruction to California young men and women at the State University. He is able, magnetic, scholarly and most successful, and not the least interesting feature of the Dupouey home is the family of bright youngsters that live under the Dupouey roof.

In the University Professor Dupouey has been delivering during the last few weeks a series of lectures dealing with the various types of French women. He spoke yesterday upon "The French Girl in the Contemporary Novel," and took occasion to point out that in almost all cases the typical French girl of fiction is far from corresponding to her prototype in actual life.

"The French girl as depicted in the modern novel," said the lecturer, "may be divided into three classes. First we have the maiden who is absolutely ignorant of worldly affairs; secondly, the maiden of apparently weak will power, whether really so, or actually possessed of strong character, or again merely affecting this weakness to gain some end. In actual life these classes are not to be found. They are all ideal creations of the novelist.

"The third and last class consists of young women of strong character, such as have been compelled by the pressure of circumstances to earn their own living. Such women are plentiful in France today, but they are by no means as graceful and interesting as such novelists as Zola would have us believe. They are generally harsh and unsympathetic. And so there is hardly any prevalent type in fiction that is true to life."

'VARSITY ROMANCE

Wedding of Professor Senger's Daughter to Redding Man.

BERKELEY, April 27.—A pretty custom prevalent among the best families in Northern Germany was introduced into Berkeley society Saturday by Miss Florence Senger, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Henry Senger, whose marriage to Dudley Saeltzer of Redding took place last evening in the Unitarian church. Among the Germans when the young lady of the house has announced her betrothal a day is set aside on which her girl friends are invited to assemble in the afternoon and sew on the wedding dress of the bride-to-be. This pretty custom was followed out by Miss Senger Saturday when a large number of friends called at the Senger home and put a stitch in the wedding dress, sewing into the garment their love. Rev. Mr. Wilbur performed the ceremony last night. Ralph Saeltzer, brother of the groom was the best man. The ushers were Samuel Eastman, Thomas Hutchins, George Senger and Ernest Linscott.

After the honeymoon the young couple will reside in Redding, where Mr. Saeltzer is associated in business with his father, R. M. Saeltzer, president of the McCormack-Saeltzer Company. Miss Senger's father is a member of the faculty of the German department in the University of California.

UNIQUE SINGING

Tots From School to Be Heard on Stage of Greek Theater.

BERKELEY, April 27.—The song festival to be given by the Berkeley school children in the Greek Theater, at the University of California on Saturday, April 29th, will include many fascinating bits of rythmic song work.

Mrs. Sweesy, while in Chicago last summer, secured some very pretty music, and with this will be enabled to present rythmic plays with bewitching little melodies, such as Bean Porridge Hot, Bean Porridge Cold and One, Two, Buckle My Shoe.

These different little rythmic plays will be executed by groups of children taken from the Primary and Grammar grades. It is most fascinating to watch a number of children acting out these pretty little rythms as a sort of dramatization of the song.

Aside from the rythmic feature of the festival come the Glee Clubs. The High School Club is composed of thirty-five voices singing in four-part harmony. The clubs from the Lincoln, Whittier and McKinley Schools have sixty voices each, and sing in three part harmony.

There will be a large number at the affair, as the lodge has the name of being a good entertainer. The Fruitvale and Oakland Tribes are expecting to send several of their members, and it is possible that a few of the grand officers may be present and take part in the after-dinner speaking.

On the committee of arrangements are the following members: Charles S. Alvord (chairman), John Marshal, August Carlson, Charles Myot and Harry A. Cramer.

TRACTION NOTES.

The new motor-generator is now in running order and is being used continuously. The other dynamos in the power-house are being renovated and repaired, as are the steam engines. They will be kept in order and ready to use in emergency, but are not for steady use any more. The transformers have not yet been installed in the brick house just built for them, and the current is reduced in the machine that takes down the light current. It is not known how soon the electricians will find time to install the big machines, as the company has lots of other work for them at present.

POULTRY SHOW PLANNED

WELL KNOWN PIGEON FANCIERS TO MEET AT HAYWARDS.

HAYWARDS, April 27.—Further preparations for the celebration of the Fourth of July were made Tuesday evening at a meeting of the citizens in the Town Hall. The Mayor of the town, Charles Heyer, was elected as permanent chairman of the meeting. William Zambresky, deputy County Clerk, was chosen secretary.

The project to have a poultry show here on the 3d met with the approval of the assemblage, as enough money is now in sight to carry it through. Jesse Woods, who is one of the most active citizens in getting up the celebration, as well as a well-known pigeon fancier, was appointed a committee of one to make arrangements for the show. When spoken to about this exhibit today Mr. Woods said:

"There is no doubt that it will be a great success if the farmers in the vicinity of Haywards do their share in bringing their birds to the show. We have thousands of fine chickens in the valley and several of the breeders have won prizes in the World's Fair with birds raised within a short distance of Haywards."

A report was received from the financial committee that up to date $1,005 had been promised. It is expected that the raising of the other $500 desired to make sure of a great celebration will not cause much difficulty. The committee comprises Jesse Woods, J. H. Lillibridge, Charles Heyer, R. Reid, Manuel Riggs, Victor Lagrave, John McCoy, W. J. Ramage, Peter Hansen, John Schwartz, Hans Sorensen, E. K. Strobridge and Colonel Hastings of San Leandro.

Afterward there were a number of short speeches by the men present on various aspects of the celebration. Among those who spoke were John W. McCoy, E. K. Strowbridge, Martin Welsh, Charles Heyer, George Oakes, Captain Nielson, Jesse Woods, J. H. Lillibridge, William Zambresky and Victor Lagrave.

The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at the same place. The chairman will then appoint the chief committee to make the arrangements and several sub-committees.

PLAN MASKED BALL.

Masks and dominoes will be worn by the guests of the Fraternal Brotherhood of Haywards at a ball which is to be given next Saturday evening at the Native Sons' Hall. At midnight all masks will be laid aside and then the guests will partake of an elegant repast in the banquet room. The tables are to be decorated with flowers and green vines, favors of violets to be placed at each plate.

The affair is to be strictly invitational. It is expected that there will be a large number present from the Oakland Lodge, No. 122. The Fraternal Brotherhood band of San Francisco has agreed to furnish the music. There are twenty musicians in this aggregation and they are high-class performers.

SOLANO SLIPS INTO WATER

IG FERRY BOAT LEAVES THE WAYS WITHOUT A HITCH.

WEST OAKLAND YARDS, April 27.—Without a hitch, the big ferry boat Solano was launched at the Southern Pacific marine ways at 6:40 this morning. It was intended to launch the vessel Tuesday afternoon, but she stuck on the ways and all day yesterday workmen were engaged under Superintendent McKenzie getting her ready for the launching this morning.

The Solano has been on the ways for the last three months and has been overhauled at a cost of about $110,000. The work of shipping her rudders will begun at once and she will go back into commission on her old run across the Carquinez Straits May 1st. She will go to Port Costa under her own steam. The Solano is the largest ferry boat in the world.

REMODEL FLOAT.

The next vessel to go on the ways will be car float No. 1., which is being remodeled. It has already been fitted with boilers and smoke stacks and now a stern wheel will be added.

Heretofore the float has been towed by tugs, but it was decided to fit it with power as an experiment.

LOSES VALISE.

Three strange men were seen examining a valise at the West Oakland Railroad Yards yesterday by Towerman Bowman, who notified the police.

Policemen Murray and Agnew were detailed on the case, but were unable to locate the men. A search of the cars revealed the valise. The officers returned to the station with the valise where an examination of its contents was made.

A quantity of wearing apparel, such as would be carried for instant use on a long journey, small articles of personal property, and a letter addressed to "D. R. McGinley, Reno, Nevada," together with cards bearing the address of Wiley B. Allen Company of Oakland and San Francisco, were found. At the Wiley B. Allen Company it was stated that D. H. McGinley, connected with the Reno office, arrived in San Francisco yesterday and expected to return to Reno today.

The local branch of the Allen Company claimed the grip, which is now held at the police station pending the appearance of the owner. The Allen Company has requested the police authorities to locate their salesman.

HAS INTERVIEW WITH GORKY

LONDON, April 27.—Rev. Edward Wilkinson, Episcopal Bishop for Europe, in an article in the Guardian, describes an interview he had with Maxim Gorky, at Bilderlingshof during the course of an Episcopal tour of Russia. The novelist was suffering from a cold caught, he explained while a prisoner at St. Petersburg, in a damp, cold cell and because of an insufficiency of clothing. In other respects Gorky said, owing to the kindness of the soldiers on guard and the jailers, who admired his writings, he had not suffered greatly.

In conversing on the subject of religion Gorky declared he had never written nor would he write anything against religion. On the contrary, he earnestly desired to see his people taught the true, vital religion. But he had devoted years t otraveling afoot in Russia inquiring into religious conditions, the result convincing him that the monks and the clergy generally were ignorant and unable to teach the religion they professed and that superstitition and formality pervaded their so called religion, about which there was no reality.

"They laugh that there were sixty or seventy Virgin Marys," he said. "It was sheer polytheism. As to dogmatic teachings, that did not exist."

Gorky condemned the war which, he said, had ruined the peasants and was ruining the country. Generally it was unpopular and hated throughout Russia. The Russians neither wished it nor understood why it was waged; soldiers went to it with the utmost reluctance: it was waged for the benefit of the bureaucracy not for Russia.

Detailing the events of "Vladimir's Sunday" Gorky said he had little doubt that his trial would again result in his being imprisoned.

IMPROVEMENTS OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—It is announced that General Manager B. A. Worthington of the Harriman lines in Oregon has approved plans for the betterment of the Oregon division of the Southern Pacific Railroad to cost $1,453,000. This is in addition to improvements already completed or now being carried on. The plans contemplate improvements along the main and branch lines extending from Portland to Ashland, Or., and embracing in extent the construction of new bridges, buildings, new tracks and general work.

A cement made by adding a teaspoonful of glycerine to a gill of glue is a great convenience in the kitchen and is especially good for fastening leather, paper or wood to metal.

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

OAKLAND IN NEW BOOKLET

SERVICEABLE COMPENDIUM OF FACTS COMPILED BY THE BOARD OF TRADE.

The Board of Trade has just issued an illustrated pamphlet seting forth the advantages, beauty, location and resources of Oakland and Alameda county.

On the front cover is the picture of a young man who has been all over the world, a fact which is shown by a grip plastered with hotel and express tags in all the large cities on the continent and in the Orient.

Beside him stands a globe on which is an outline of North and South America, with the word "Oakland" in large characters, indicating the location of this city on the western coast of the United States.

Referring to this city, the traveler says:

"In all my travels, I have not seen any city that possesses the natural advantages Oakland, California, does, either for manufacturing or as a residence city."

Oakland is also characterized as "Unquestionably the coming commercial city of the Pacific Coast," and also as the place "where steel rail and ship rail are united on a land-locked harbor of sufficient size to accommodate all the shipping of the Pacific ocean."

The book also contains an excellent view of shipping in Oakland harbor, together with a reference to the money appropriated by the United States Government for the dredging and enlargement of the stream.

The horticultural features are shown by fine pictures of ripe raspberries, blackberries, logan-berries, strawberries, cherries and other fruits raised and exhibited here during winter.

The floral richness and foliage are represented by views taken from gardens within the city limits.

The pleasure spots are represented by views of several parks and Lake Merritt, while progress in building is shown by a cluster of seven magnificent structures which were erected during the past year.

Besides, the book contains short practical paragraphs full of information on every subject of interest to a person at a distance who may desire to come to this section to establish his home.

Copies of the booklet may be had on application to the Board of Trade.

CALL ON COURT TO DECIDE DISPUTE.

A squabble over $2,500, the surplus on a piece of property sold recently at Tenth and Alice streets for $12,000 to Robert Dalziel, is the subject of a suit being heard by Judge Ellsworth.

George E. Faw, recent Democratic candidate for Senator from Berkeley, engineered a deal in which he interested Dr. A. H. Pratt, whereby sufficient money was put up to keep it from falling into the hands of the Union Savings Bank.

The owner of the property originally was V. R. Raymond, who mortgaged the property to the bank for $8,000. He was unable to pay and the interest and expenses amounted to $1,500 more when suit to foreclose was begun.

Raymond then transferred his interest to Mrs. M. E. Roberts, his sister, who thought she saw a way of keeping the property and interested Faw, who said that he could borrow $9,500 on the property if it was in his name, and Mrs. Roberts thereupon deeded the property to him, with an agreement that if she could raise the $1,500 within a year he would deed it back to her, he to have $500 for his services.

The property, however, was sold before it was redeemed to Robert Dalziel for $12,000, and Mrs. Roberts has now brought suit for the $2,500 made on the property.

While Faw is made the defendant in the action it was Dr. Pratt's money that was working, and he states that he knew nothing about any agreement when he let Faw have the money to put into the place.

I Will Show You How to Cure Yours FREE.
I was helpless and bed-ridden for years from a double rupture. No truss could hold. Doctors said I would die if not operated on. I fooled them all and cured myself by a simple discovery. I will send the cure free by mail if you write for it. It cured me and has since cured thousands. It will cure you. Write to-day. Capt. W. A. Collings, Box 518, Watertown, N. Y.

Danderine
Grew Miss Wilson's Hair
AND WE CAN PROVE IT.
Danderine Is So Exhilarating, Invigorating
and strengthening to both the hair and scalp that even a 25c. bottle of it is often enough to show wonderful improvements. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout out all over the scalp, and grow abundantly, long and beautiful. Use it every day for awhile, after which two or three times a week will be enough to complete whatever growth you desire.
NOW at all druggists, in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.
FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

LENA SCHAFFER.

FILES HIS PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

Defaulter Confesses to Liabilities Aggregating Over $2,000,000.

MILWAUKEE, April 27.—The people of Milwaukee awoke to a new sensation today, when the startling announcement was made that Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting bank president, had filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities aggregating over $2,000,000 and assets near the million and a half mark.

The fact that the largest creditors, which are banks, are placed in the list of preferred creditors, had a tendency to quiet the nerves of the people who have deposits in the city banks.

There has so far been no excitement in the vicinity of any of the banks and none is expected. Every bank in the city reserves its right to take advantage of the law with regard to the time deposits, and this is being done.

MONEY RETURNED.

Offers of assistance continue to pour in from all parts of the country to the First National Bank, although the time has passed when any outside aid is necessary.

A large amount of money which was withdrawn during the excitement of Monday and Tuesday has been returned to the bank and heavy deposits are coming in from big business houses throughout the city.

C. N. Bosworth, the national bank examiner, is still conducting his thorough investigation of the First National Bank, and does not expect to complete the work for several days.

No trace has yet been found of Henry O. Goll, the deposed assistant cashier.

HAS CONFESSED.

MILWAUKEE, April 27.—Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting bank president, has confessed an indebtedness to banks, commercial institutions and estates of which he had charge which will aggregate between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, and based on his confession a voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the United States District Court, which contains the names of as many of Mr. Bigelow's creditors as he can remember, together with a list of assets on which Mr. Bigelow's valuation is $1,419,000.

By his own admission his creditors extend all over the United States. One estate has been looted, his indebtedness to the Broadhead estate being $100,000. The debt is unsecured. It is also believed other trusts held by the former banker have suffered. Those familiar with the situation and with what information they can glean from the former banker, fear his liabilities will run up to considerably more than his present estimate, as they believe subsequent revelations will reveal transactions of even a more startling nature.

NO SYSTEM.

Attorney Charles P. Spooner, who filed the voluntary petition in behalf of Mr. Bigelow, was compelled to make up the petition in such a short time that it is far from complete and will necessarily have to be amended. So far as could be ascertained Mr. Bigelow had no system of keeping a record of his financial transactions and the schedule of liabilities and assets had to be made up from a list made in pencil on half a sheet of note paper in Mr. Bigelow's handwriting. Mr. Bigelow was not positive of the names of some of his creditors nor of the nature of some of the companies, and had nothing at hand to refresh his memory, so the attorney was obliged to use his best judgment in figuring out what conceras were meant.

The revelations as to the system of Mr. Bigelow in conducting large affairs are such as to stagger the belief of bankers, to whom method in such transactions is as a second nature. The filing of the petition in bankruptcy will necessitate the withdrawal of the securities which were turned over by Mr. Bigelow to the First National Bank, as being made within four months of the filing of the petition in bankruptcy. It constitutes an act of preference of creditors, and the amount, which was estimated at about $300,000, will be equally divided among all the creditors of Mr. Bigelow. This will in no way affect the bank, however, as the guarantee of the directors and stockholders more than covers the defalcation.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES.

The schedule of assets and liabilities of Mr. Bigelow as filed is as follows:

Creditors secured to some extent: First National Bank of Milwaukee, $1,500,000; Wisconsin National Bank of Milwaukee, $50,000; Second Ward Savings Bank of Milwaukee, $75,000; German-American Bank of Milwaukee, $40,000; Marine National Bank of Milwaukee, $20,000; National City Bank of New York, $6,000; National Bank of Commerce, New York, $6,000; First National Bank of Chicago, $50,000; National Park Bank of New York, $50,000; National Bank of Commerce, St. Louis, $60,000.

Unsecured creditors: Broadhead estate, $100,000; Caroline Watkins, $24,000; Mrs. Kann (name doubtful), $9,000; Samuel Watkins, $24,000; unknown person, $9,000.

IS INCOMPLETE.

The estimated total of liabilities is about $2,200,000, as Attorney Spooner stated that the petition is so incomplete and may be subject to so much amendment that exact amounts cannot be given at present.

The table of assets, with the valuations placed upon them by Mr. Bigelow himself to the best of his recollection, is as follows:

Sundry life insurance policies with value of $600,000; 1,850 shares First National Bank stock at $200 a share, $370,000; 17,200 shares of National Electric stock, $480,000; 1,600 acres of coal land, Huerfano county, Colo., $60,000; 6,200 shares in Del Norte Company, $150,000; shares in Idaho Company, $35,000.

Shares preferred stock McKenna Process Company, Pittsburg, $28000.

Shares common stock McKenna Process Company, $6,000.

Shares Comanche Mining and Smelting Company, $30,000.

Shares in Chicago Highland Association, $7,000.

Lowery (?) National Bank, Atlanta, $3,900.

Shares in Fon Du Lac Bank, $1,500.

Stock in Northwestern Iron Company, $10,000.

Shares in Zion Furnace Company, Ashland, $8,000.

Notes of sundry individuals, $40,000.

Shares Grand Rapids Edison Company, $20,000.

Camp Real Estate Company, $80,000.

Shares in Milwaukee Iron Works (?), $15,000.

2,500 shares J. L. Gates Land Company, $100,000.

Included in the schedule is Mr. Bigelowe's home at Astor and Knapp streets, on which he places a valuation of $40,000, which, less the exemption allowed by law on a homestead is valued at $35,000.

HIS ASSETS.

This schedule of assets is as follows:

Furniture, $36,000.
Horses, $2,000.
Carriages, $2,000.
Books, $10,000.
House, $40,000. Total, $90,000.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

Excluding the face value of the life insurance policies, the estimated value of the assets, according to Mr. Bigelow's figures, is about $1,419,000, but Attorney Charles P. Spooner, who filed the petition, said that undoubtedly these figures will be subject to considerable change as soon as the exact value of these assets is determined. He said that it was probable that there would be a considerable change in these totals, both of the liabilities and of the assets.

"The petition was formulated in such haste," said Mr. Spooner, "that the schedule and lists of assets, as well as some of the names of the companies, are inaccurate.

"It was compiled from the recollections of Mr. Bigelow, as he had no books or memoranda at his house, apparently, from which definite figures could be obtained. I cannot vouch for the accuracy of the schedule of liabilities, as it is possible that more will be found. However, I am convinced that Mr. Bigelow gave me the best information he had at hand, and that this was the best he could do in the short space of time at our disposal.

Among the assets listed in the schedule are some which were turned over to the First National Bank, but which will now be distributed among all the creditors according to the decision of the referee in bankruptcy. The action is in no way unfriendly to the First National Bank, but was taken merely because it was seen that with all the other creditors of Mr. Bigelow which were unknown to the First National Bank officials on Monday, would undoubtedly have taken some step to prevent the preference of creditors. Consequently, when the announcement was made that Mr. Bigelow had turned over his most tangible assets to the bank the officials were in ignorance that he had other indebtedness of such a large amount.

CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

The news of Mr. Bigelow's obligations to other banks in the United States and that trust funds of estates had been used fairly took the breath away of some of the officials of the First National Bank who had hitherto been loth to believe the rumors that the former president had been obtaining money from outside sources. Although they were aware of the fact that the petition in bankruptcy was to be filed, they did not know of the items which it contained.

The verification of the report that the Broadhead estate had been the loser to the extent of $100,000 through Mr. Bigelow, is contained in the petition in bankruptcy, as Mr. Bigelow confesses to have used this amount of the estate's funds. An investigation of the affairs of the estate will be conducted to ascertain if any more of the funds have been used by Mr. Bigelow. John C. Brodhead of Kingston, N. Y., one of the beneficiaries in the estate, will arrive here Friday night to look after his interests.

TOOK FROM ESTATE.

Mr. Bigelow, in speaking of the Broadhead estate before the filing of the petition in bankruptcy, admitted that he was indebted to the estate.

"It is true that the estate was valued at about $1,000,000, but all the personal property was divided some time ago," he said. "I am indebted to the estate, but nothing like the amounts that have been rumored. I owe the estate about $100,000. As soon as Mr. Broadhead comes I shall try to arrange with him to pay back the amount. I will also retire as trustee."

The Henry C. Payne estate is absolutely intact, according to George F. Miller. It amounted to $700,000 but neither executor of the estate could transact business without the sanction of the other.

The filing of the voluntary petition in bankruptcy was not decided upon until yesterday when Attorney Spooner was hurriedly summoned to go to Mr. Bigelow's house to obtain the necessary facts to enable him to prepare the petition. The filing of the petition was desired by Mr. Bigelow himself, as he had objections to being forced into involuntary bankruptcy through the act of some unfriendly creditor, although the result in either case would have been the same.

TYRANT CALLED TO RULE OVER MOSCOW.

Gen. Kozloff to Restore Tranquility in Disturbed District With a Firm Hand.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 27.—The post of Governor-General of Moscow, which was temporarily abolished January 13, has been re-established by imperial decree, and General Kozloff, former chief of the Moscow police, has been appointed Governor-General of that city. The administrative control of the police remains in the hands of General Wolkoff, who was appointed prefect in January, but the police will be under the general supervision of the governor-general.

TYRANT APPOINTED.

Kozloff's appointment as Governor-General of Moscow upon the eve of the anticipated troubles at Easter on May day, although accompanied by a rescript in which Emperor Nicholas speaks of the "great interior reforms" contemplated by him, leaves no doubt of his purpose to restore tranquility with a firm hand.

Kozloff distinguished himself during the Nihilist conspiracies 25 years ago by hunting down conspirators, which resulted in an attempt upon his life. The public generally interprets his summons from retirement at the age of 68 as being an indication that the harsh measures of repression then sanctioned are to be revived.

The government, however, takes the position that the execution of reforms is impossible until the present agitation and excitement are quieted. With General Trepoff in St. Petersburg and Kozloff in Moscow it is considered that public safety in the two capitals is assured. The Liberals consider the appointment another reactionary step. A prominent Liberal said:

"We expected the proclamation of general amnesty for political prisoners as an Easter gift. Instead, the Emperor gave us Kozloff."

HIS CAREER.

Kozloff's entire career has been spent in the police or gendarmerie, beginning as assistant chief of police at Riga in 1861 and later during the exciting Nihilistic days alternating as chief of police of Moscow and St. Petersburg. He succeeded the father of Trepoff here. When Vera Sassalitch was acquitted by a public court on the charge of attempting the life of the elder Trepoff in revenge for his act in ordering her student lover to be flogegd for declining to uncover when the chief of police passed in the street, the jury practically justified her plea that she did not intend to kill him, but only to pillory Trepoff before the world for his harsh treatment of students.

HUNTED NIHILISTS.

Kozloff's service as chief of police of St. Petersburg covered the period following the assassination of Alexander III in 1881 after Alexander III had thrown over General Lorish-Melikoff, the famous soldier and statesman, who was Minister of the Interior, and other liberal advisers of his father, and had surrendered to M. Popedonasteff, the procurator general, and the reactionary party. He retired after crushing the Nihilist conspiracies and the conclusion of the famous trials. He was the head of the celebrated committee of public safety composed of twenty-five persons, his name apeparing on all orders. "Kozloff" means "goat," and the public sarcastically denominated his proclamations "orders of Kozloff and his 25 goats." Nevertheless, Kozloff succeeded in what he set out to do, earning the greatest praise from his imperial master, who heaped decorations upon him, conferring on Kozloff among other orders the Alexander Navsky order, never previously given to a chief of police.

SAW YOUNG WITH PISTOL

ANOTHER WITNESS COMES FORWARD IN FAVOR OF NAN PATTERSON.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Another person has come forward through the newspapers with a story of having seen Nan Patterson and Caesar Young a moment before the bookmaker met his death June 4th last in a cab on West Broadway. The new witness is Mrs. Fannie Shapiros, wife of an east side dentist. She claims to have been within a few feet of the cab, that Young had a revolver in his right hand which the woman at his side was trying to tear from his grasp. As the cab passed her Mrs. Shapiros says the man started to rise from his seat. A second or two later she heard a shot. Several persons ran towards the cab and being in delicate health the dentist's wife hurried from the scene.

She made her way back home on Second avenue and told her mother, who confirms the story. They decided that owing to Mrs. Shapiro's poor health she should keep the story secret in the hope that other witnesses would come forward and describe the events she saw, thus saving her an unpleasant ordeal on the witness stand and much notoriety.

Having watched the progress of the trials, Mrs. Shapiros finally became convinced that she had made an error in keeping silent and so does her husband. The latter decided that his wife should at once make her story public.

Whether Mrs. Shapiros will be summoned as a witness is not yet known as the attorneys in the case will learn of her existence today for the first time. Mrs. Shapiros declares that so close was she to the cab when the shot was fired that it would have been a physical impossibility for any one but Young to have fired the shot, so firmly was he grasping the revolver when the cab passed.

Miss Jane Kelton, leading lady at Ye Liberty Theater, who was summarily discharged by Manager Bishop, has been re-employed and will resume her old position in the company. GOVERNMENT IS NOT SATISFIED

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Secretary of War has written a letter in reply to a claim against the Government of the United States for duty collected at Port of Manila between April 11, 1899, and October 25, 1901, the claim being on the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Warner Barnes & Co. and Peabody & Co. vs. the United States, in which he says:

"The government is not disposed to concede the justice of the claims and purposes to file a petition for rehearing in the case to which you refer and to present many good reasons with the hope that they will convince the courts of the error made in the conclusion reached. This declaration on the part of the Government render it of course impossible for us either to recognize the validity of the claim or to call the attention of any other department of the government to the necessity for its payment."
